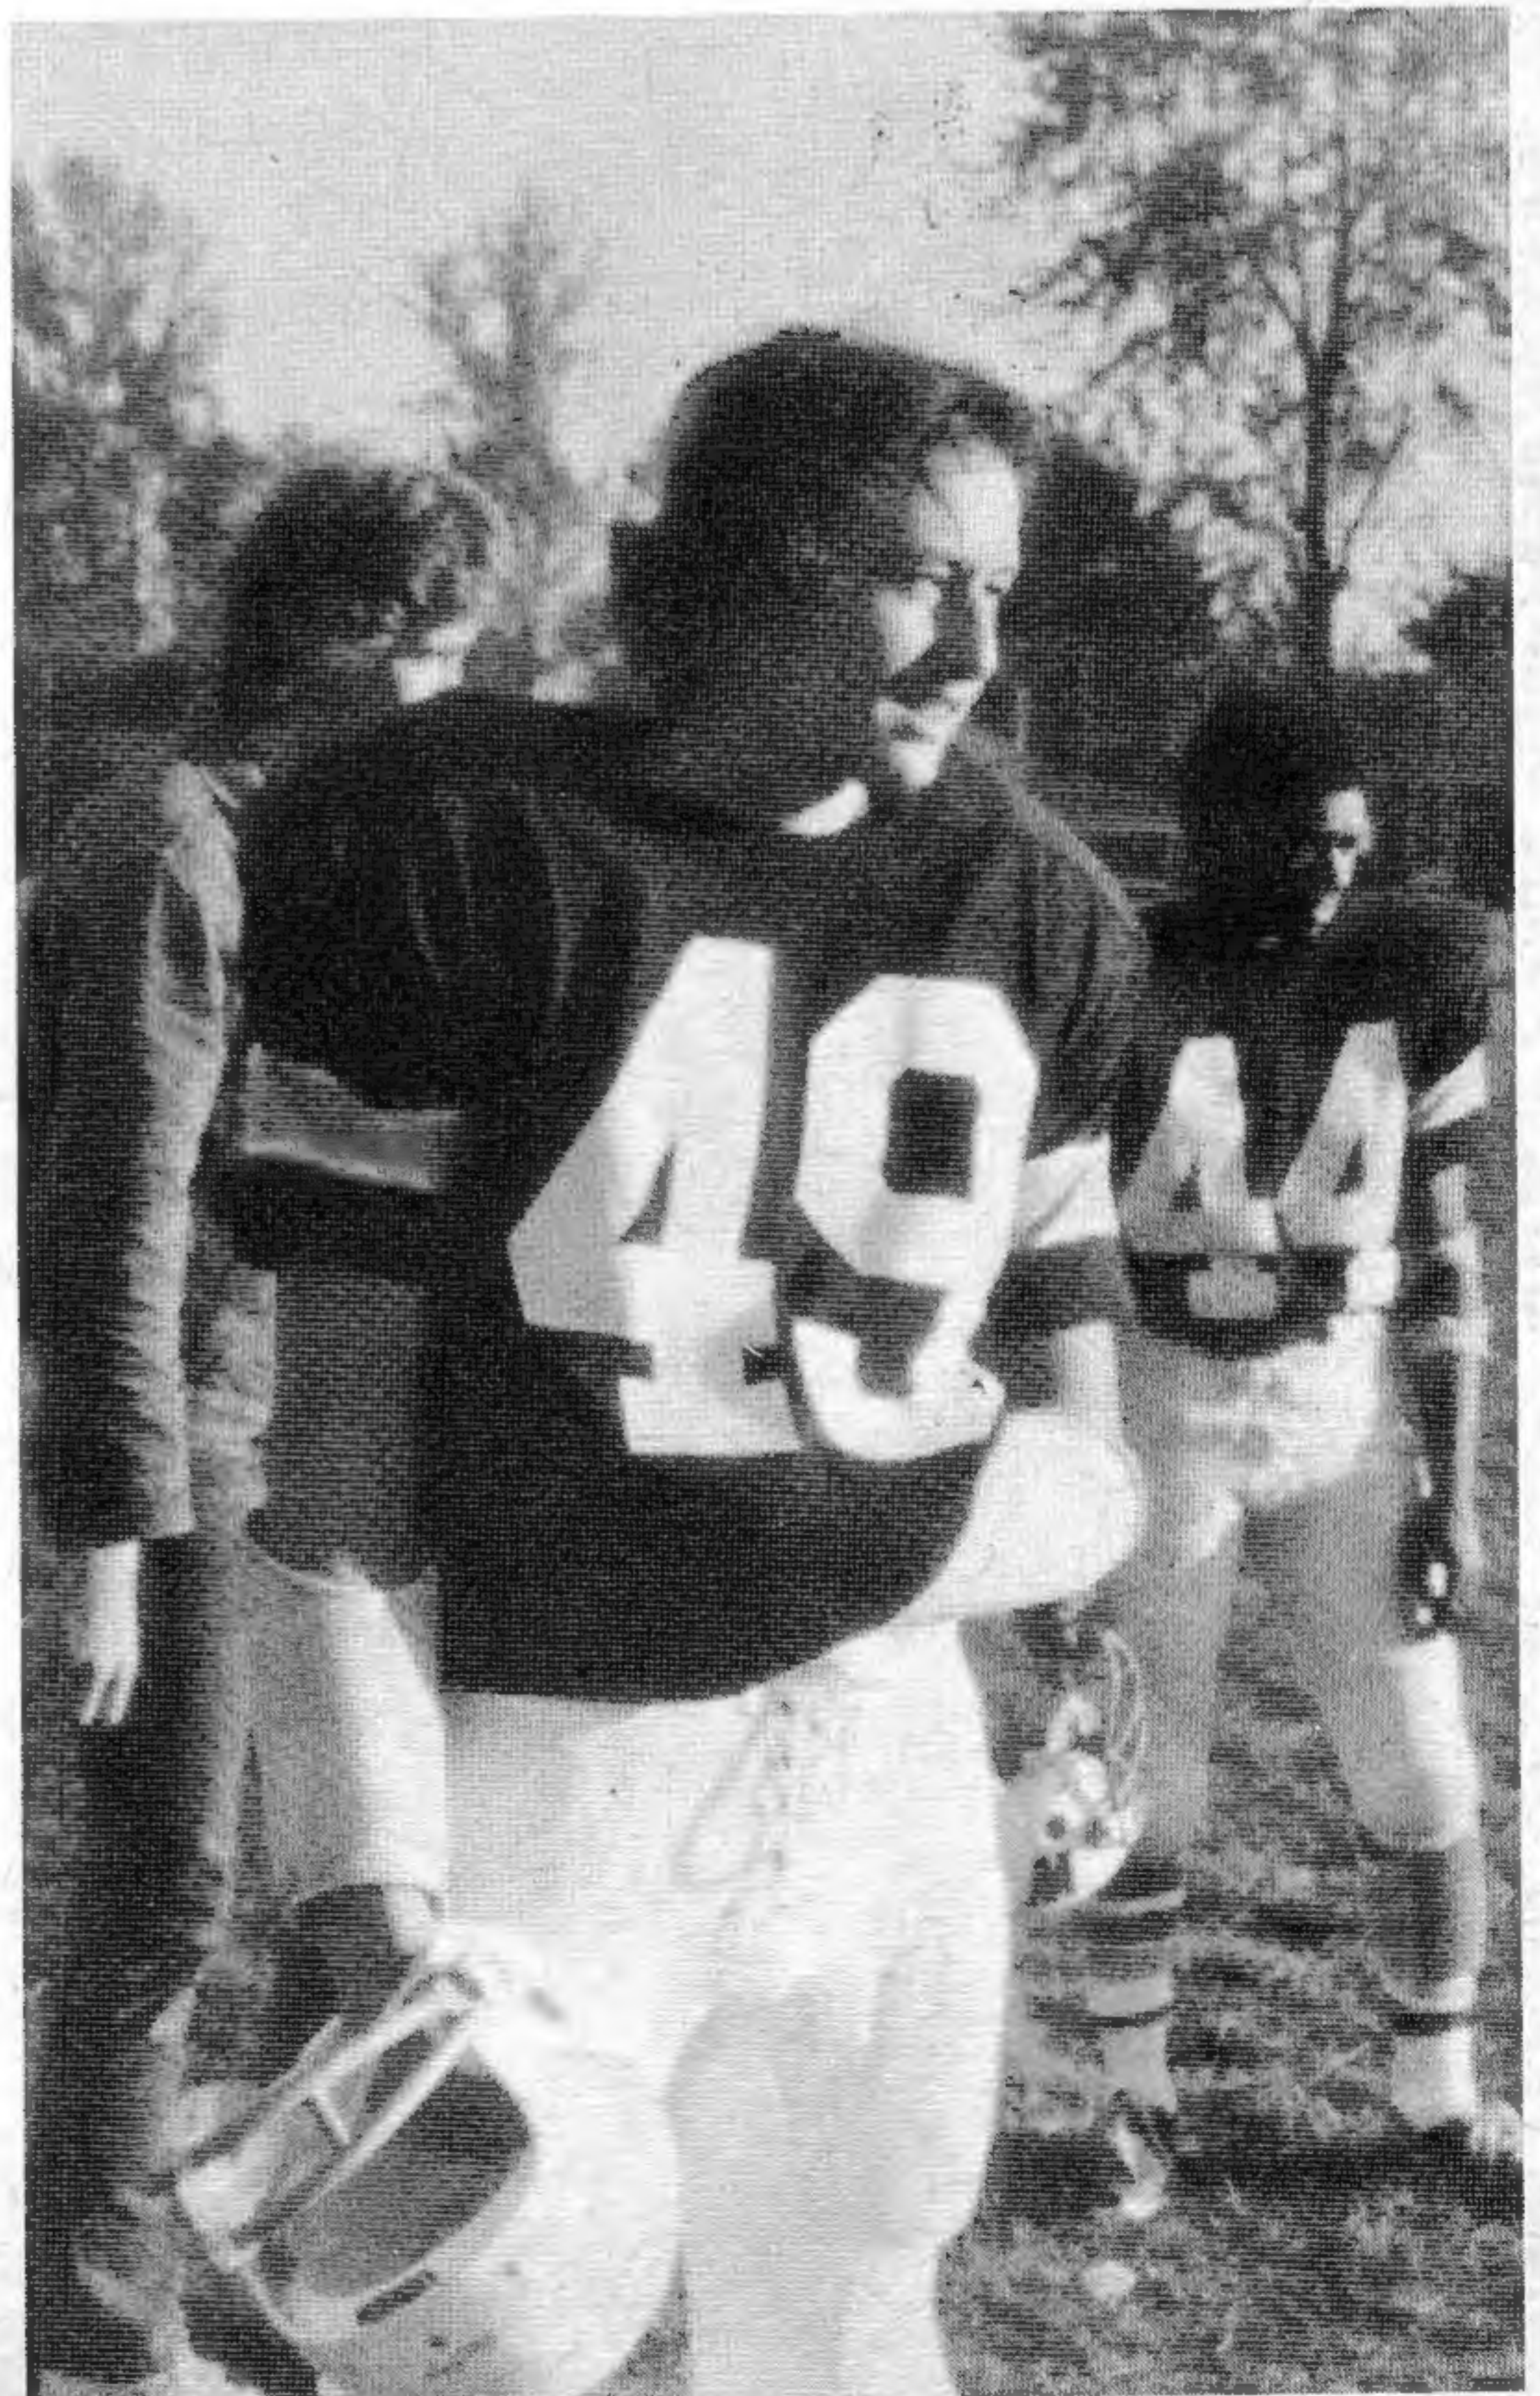
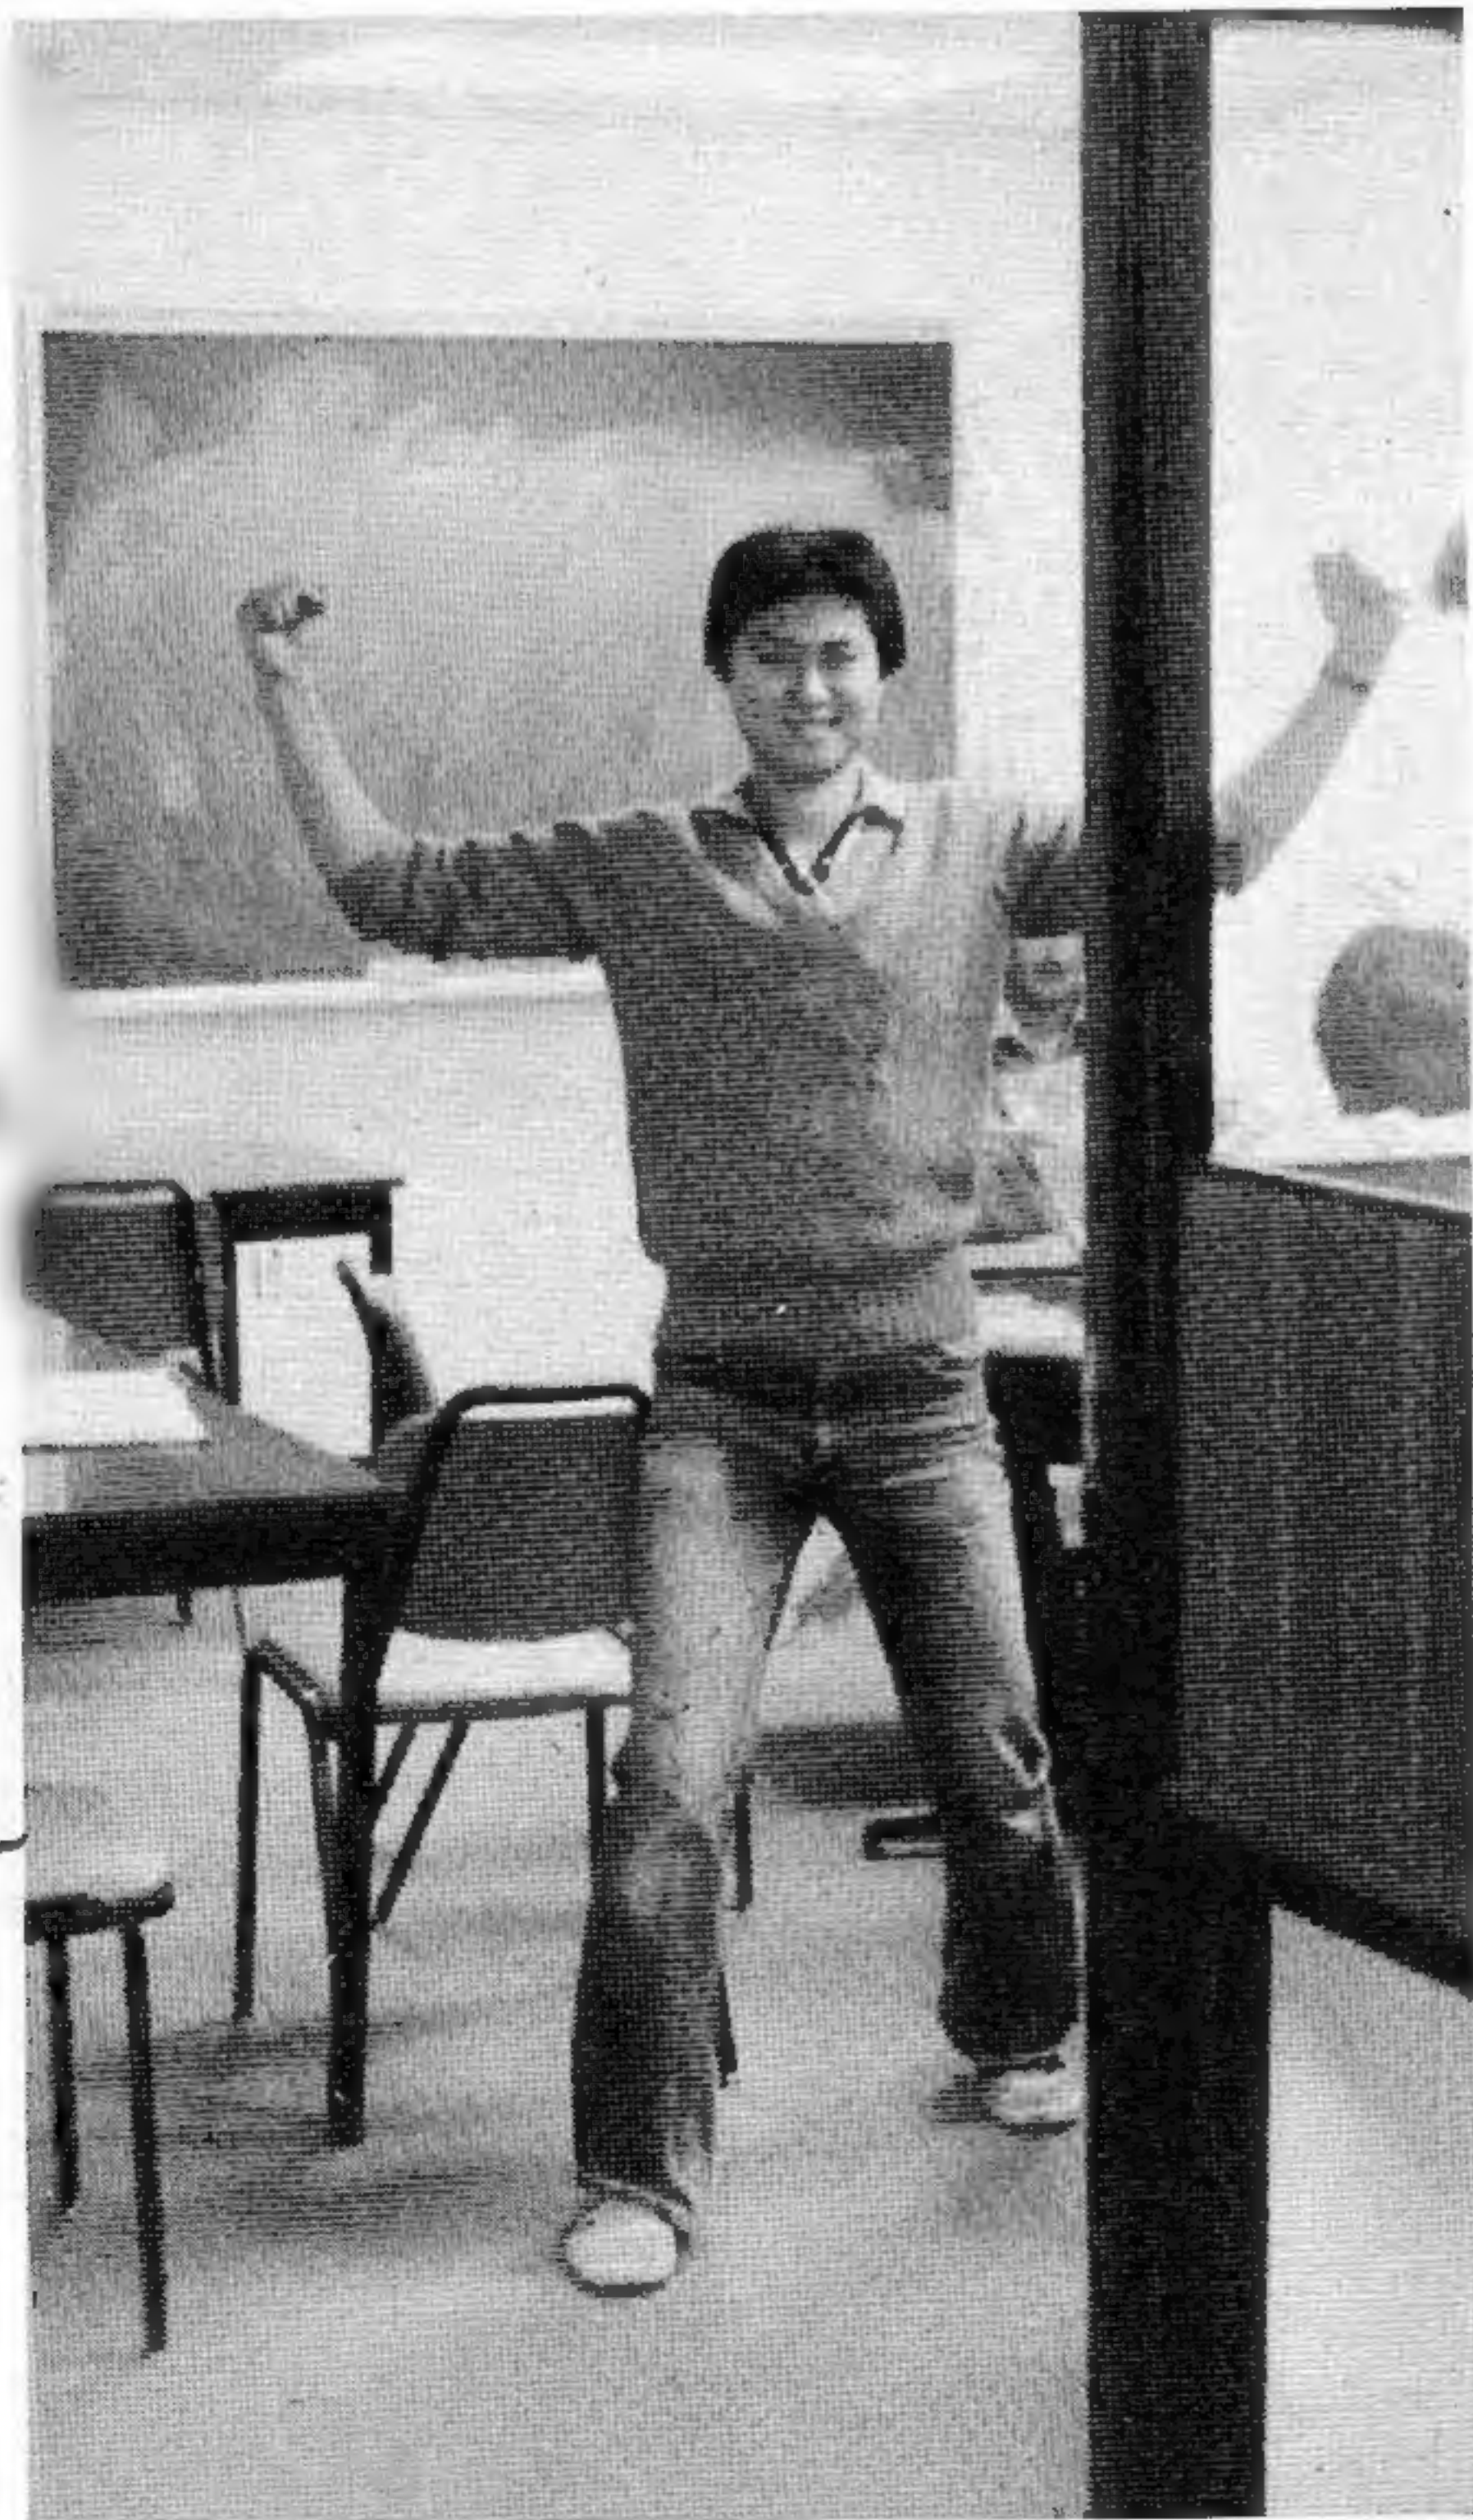
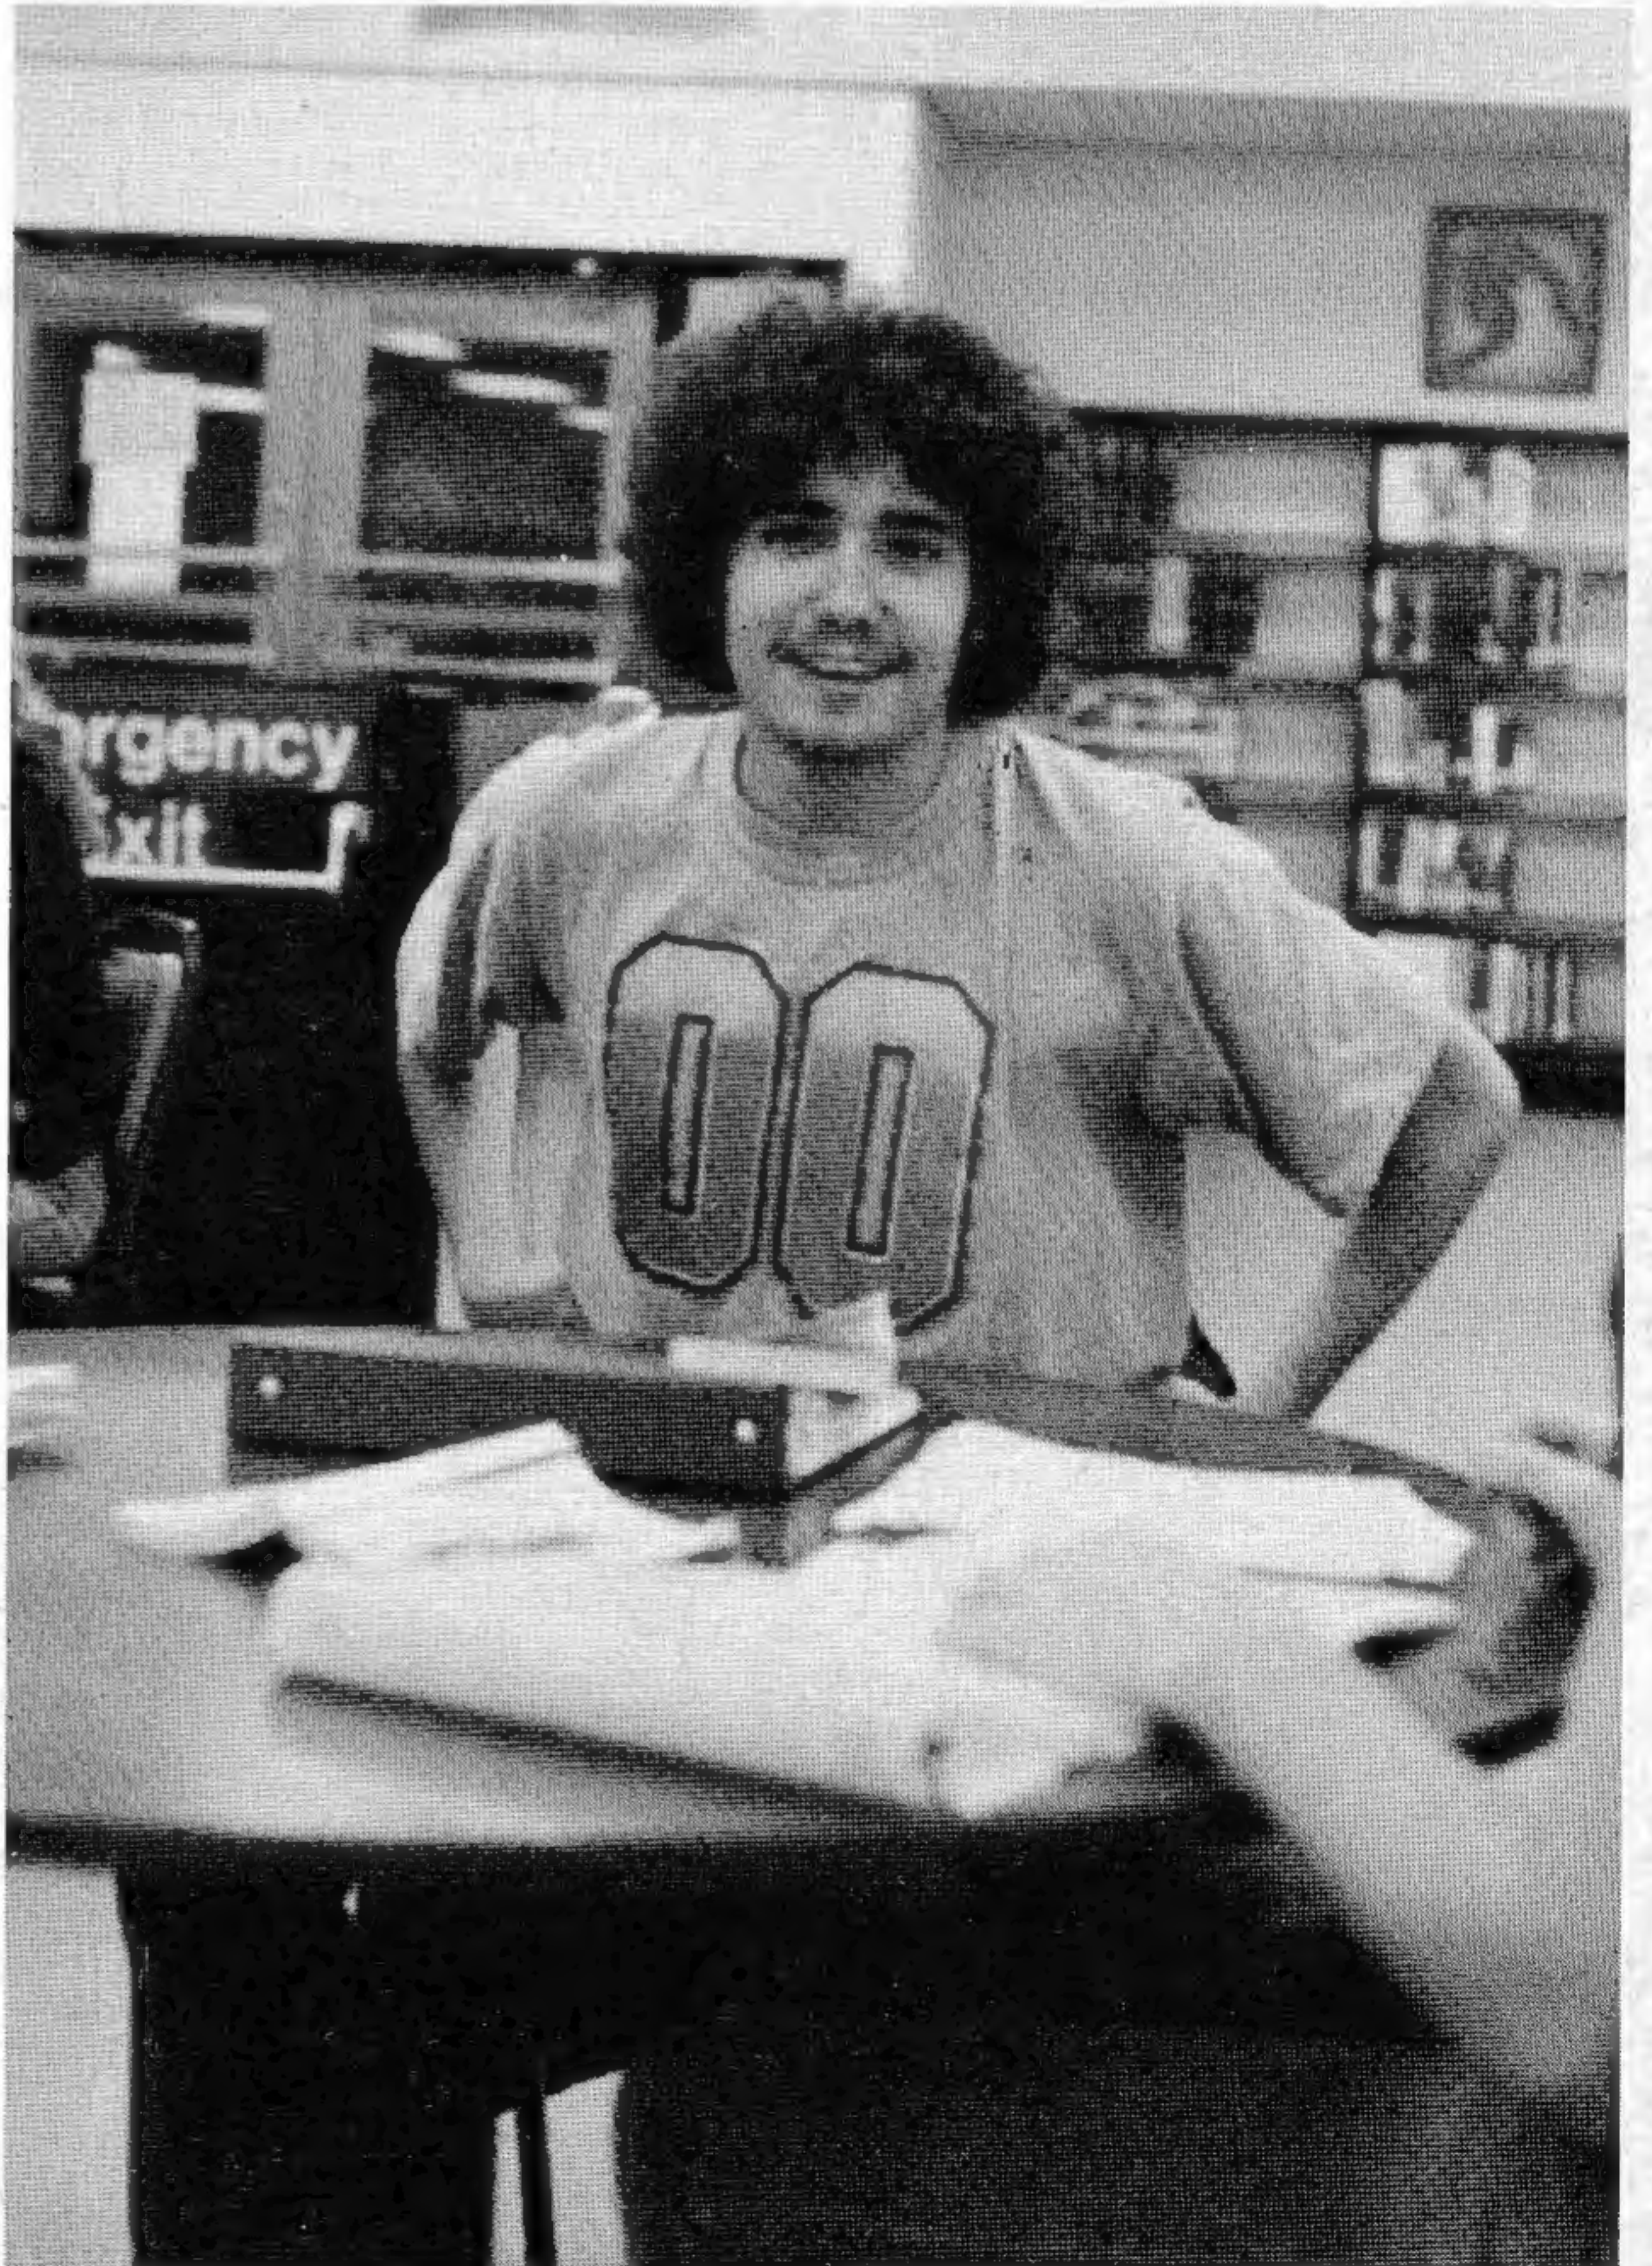
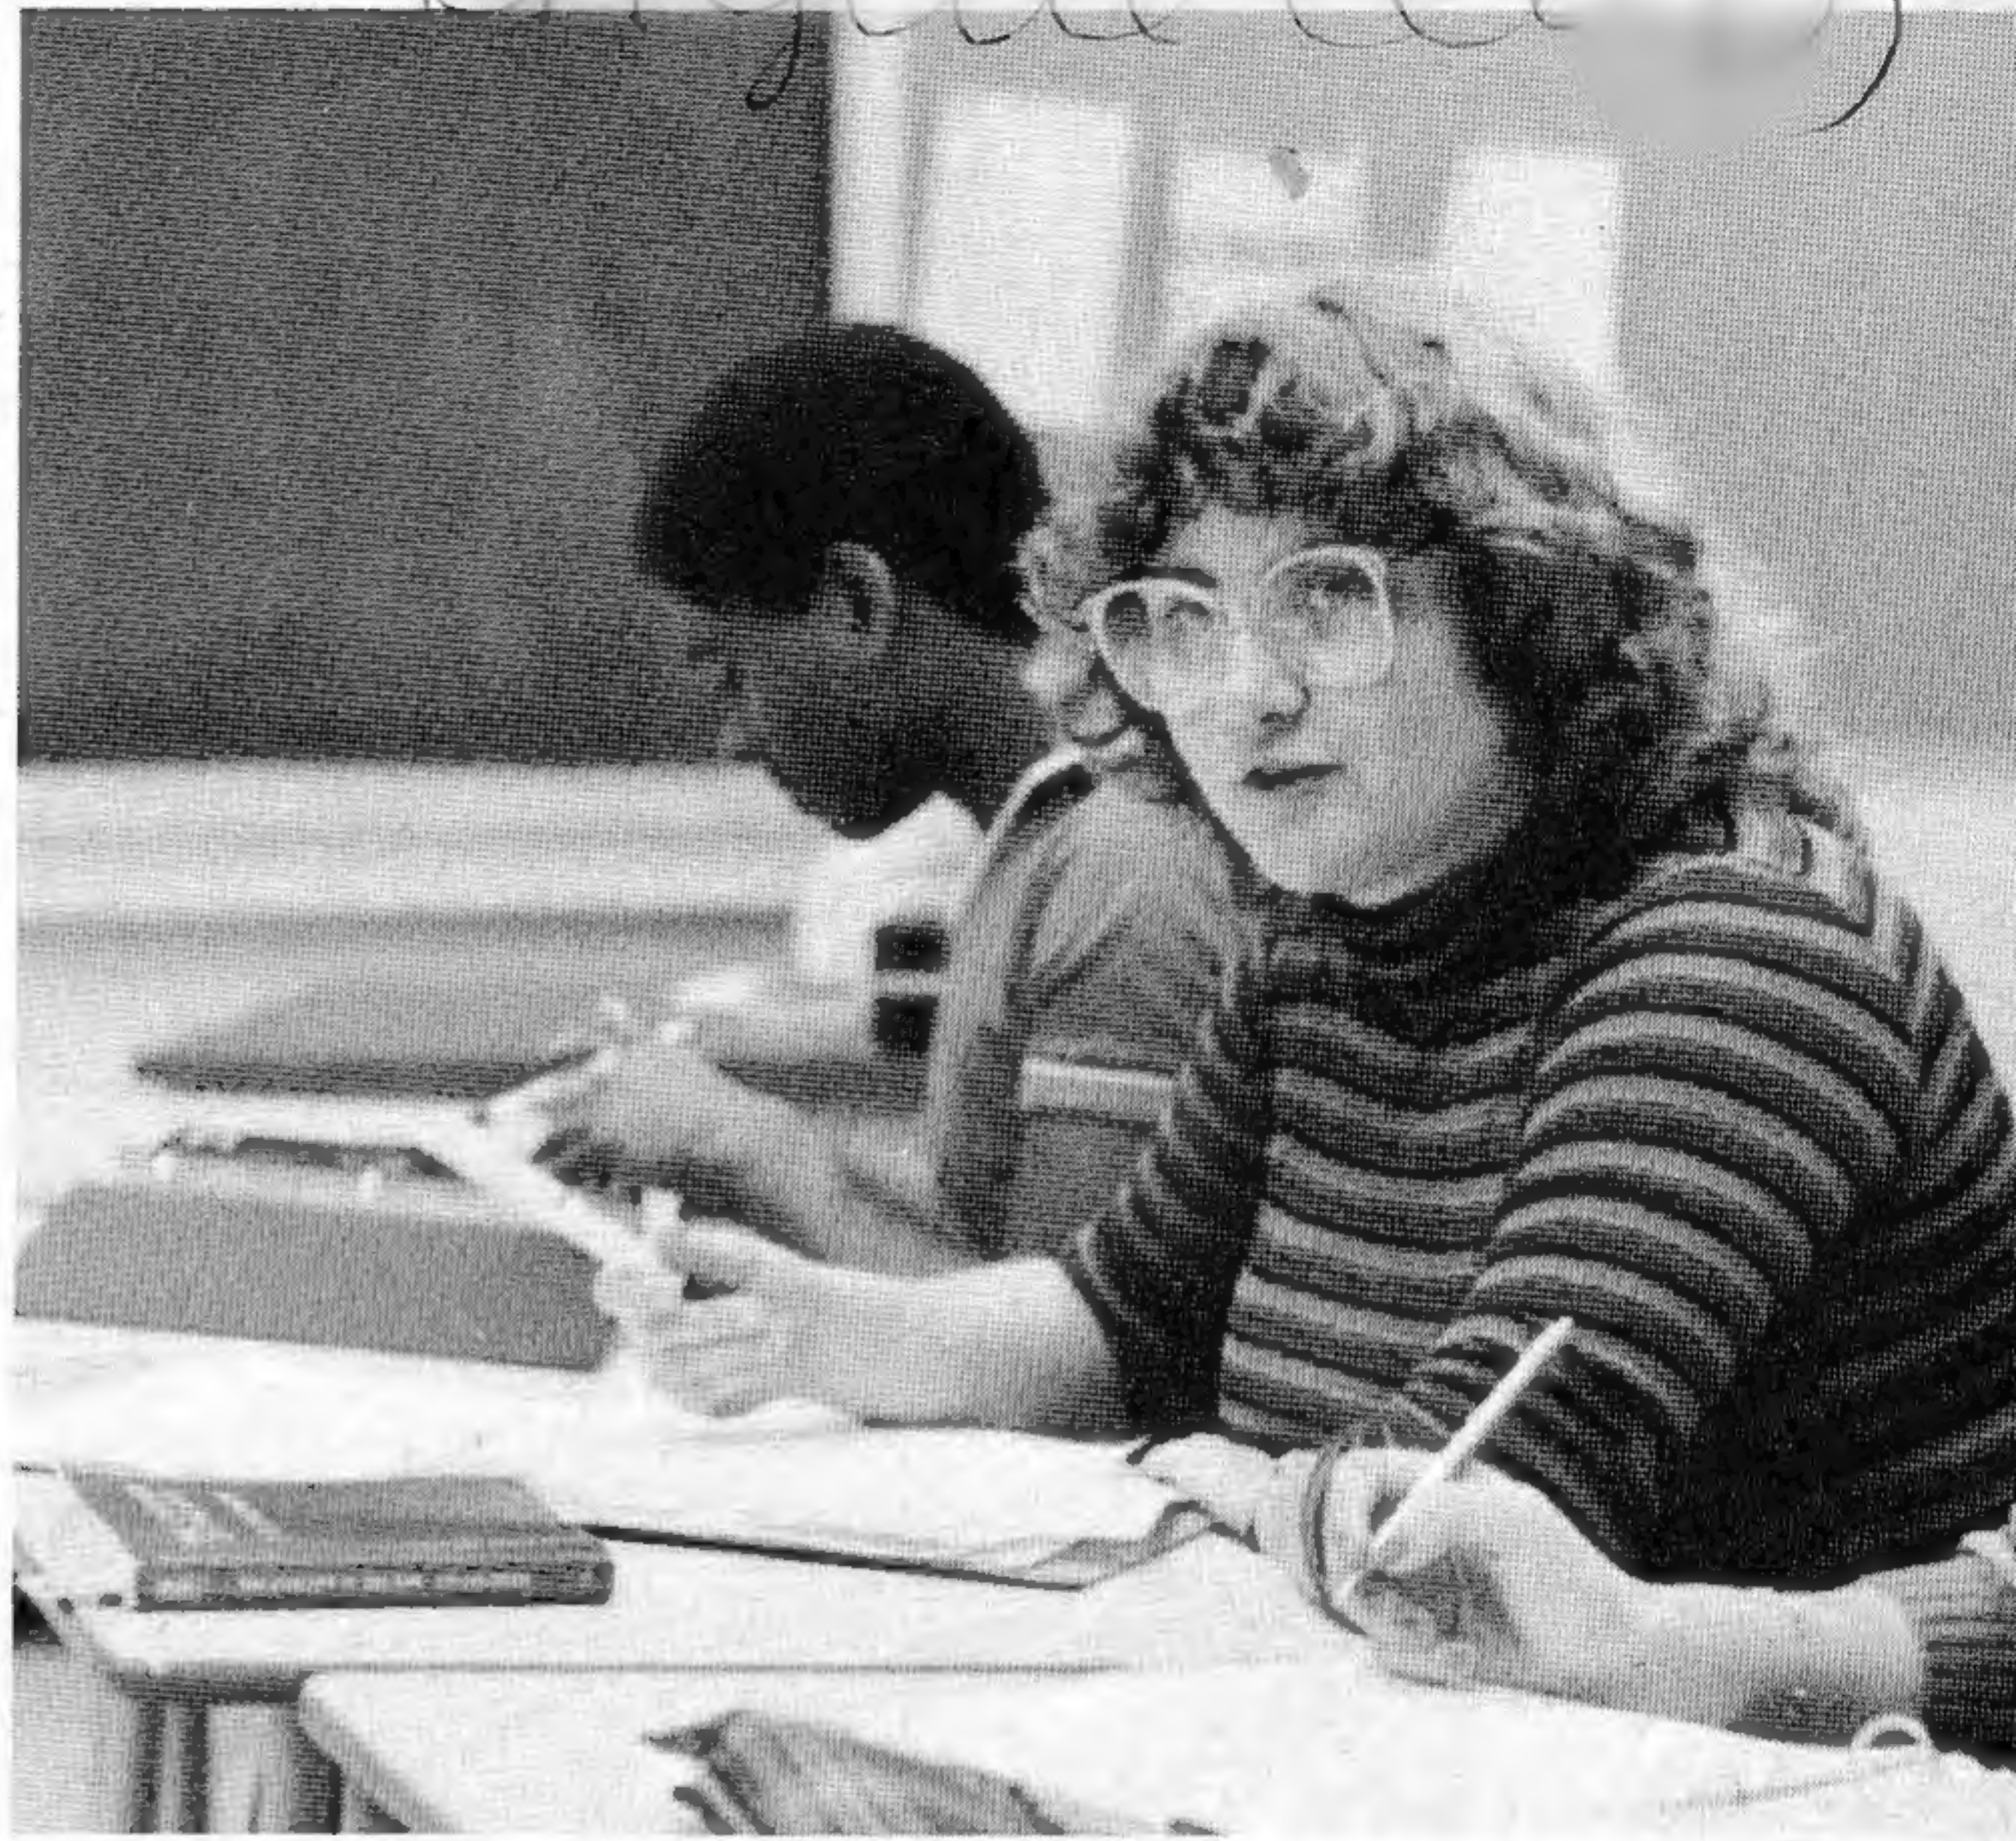
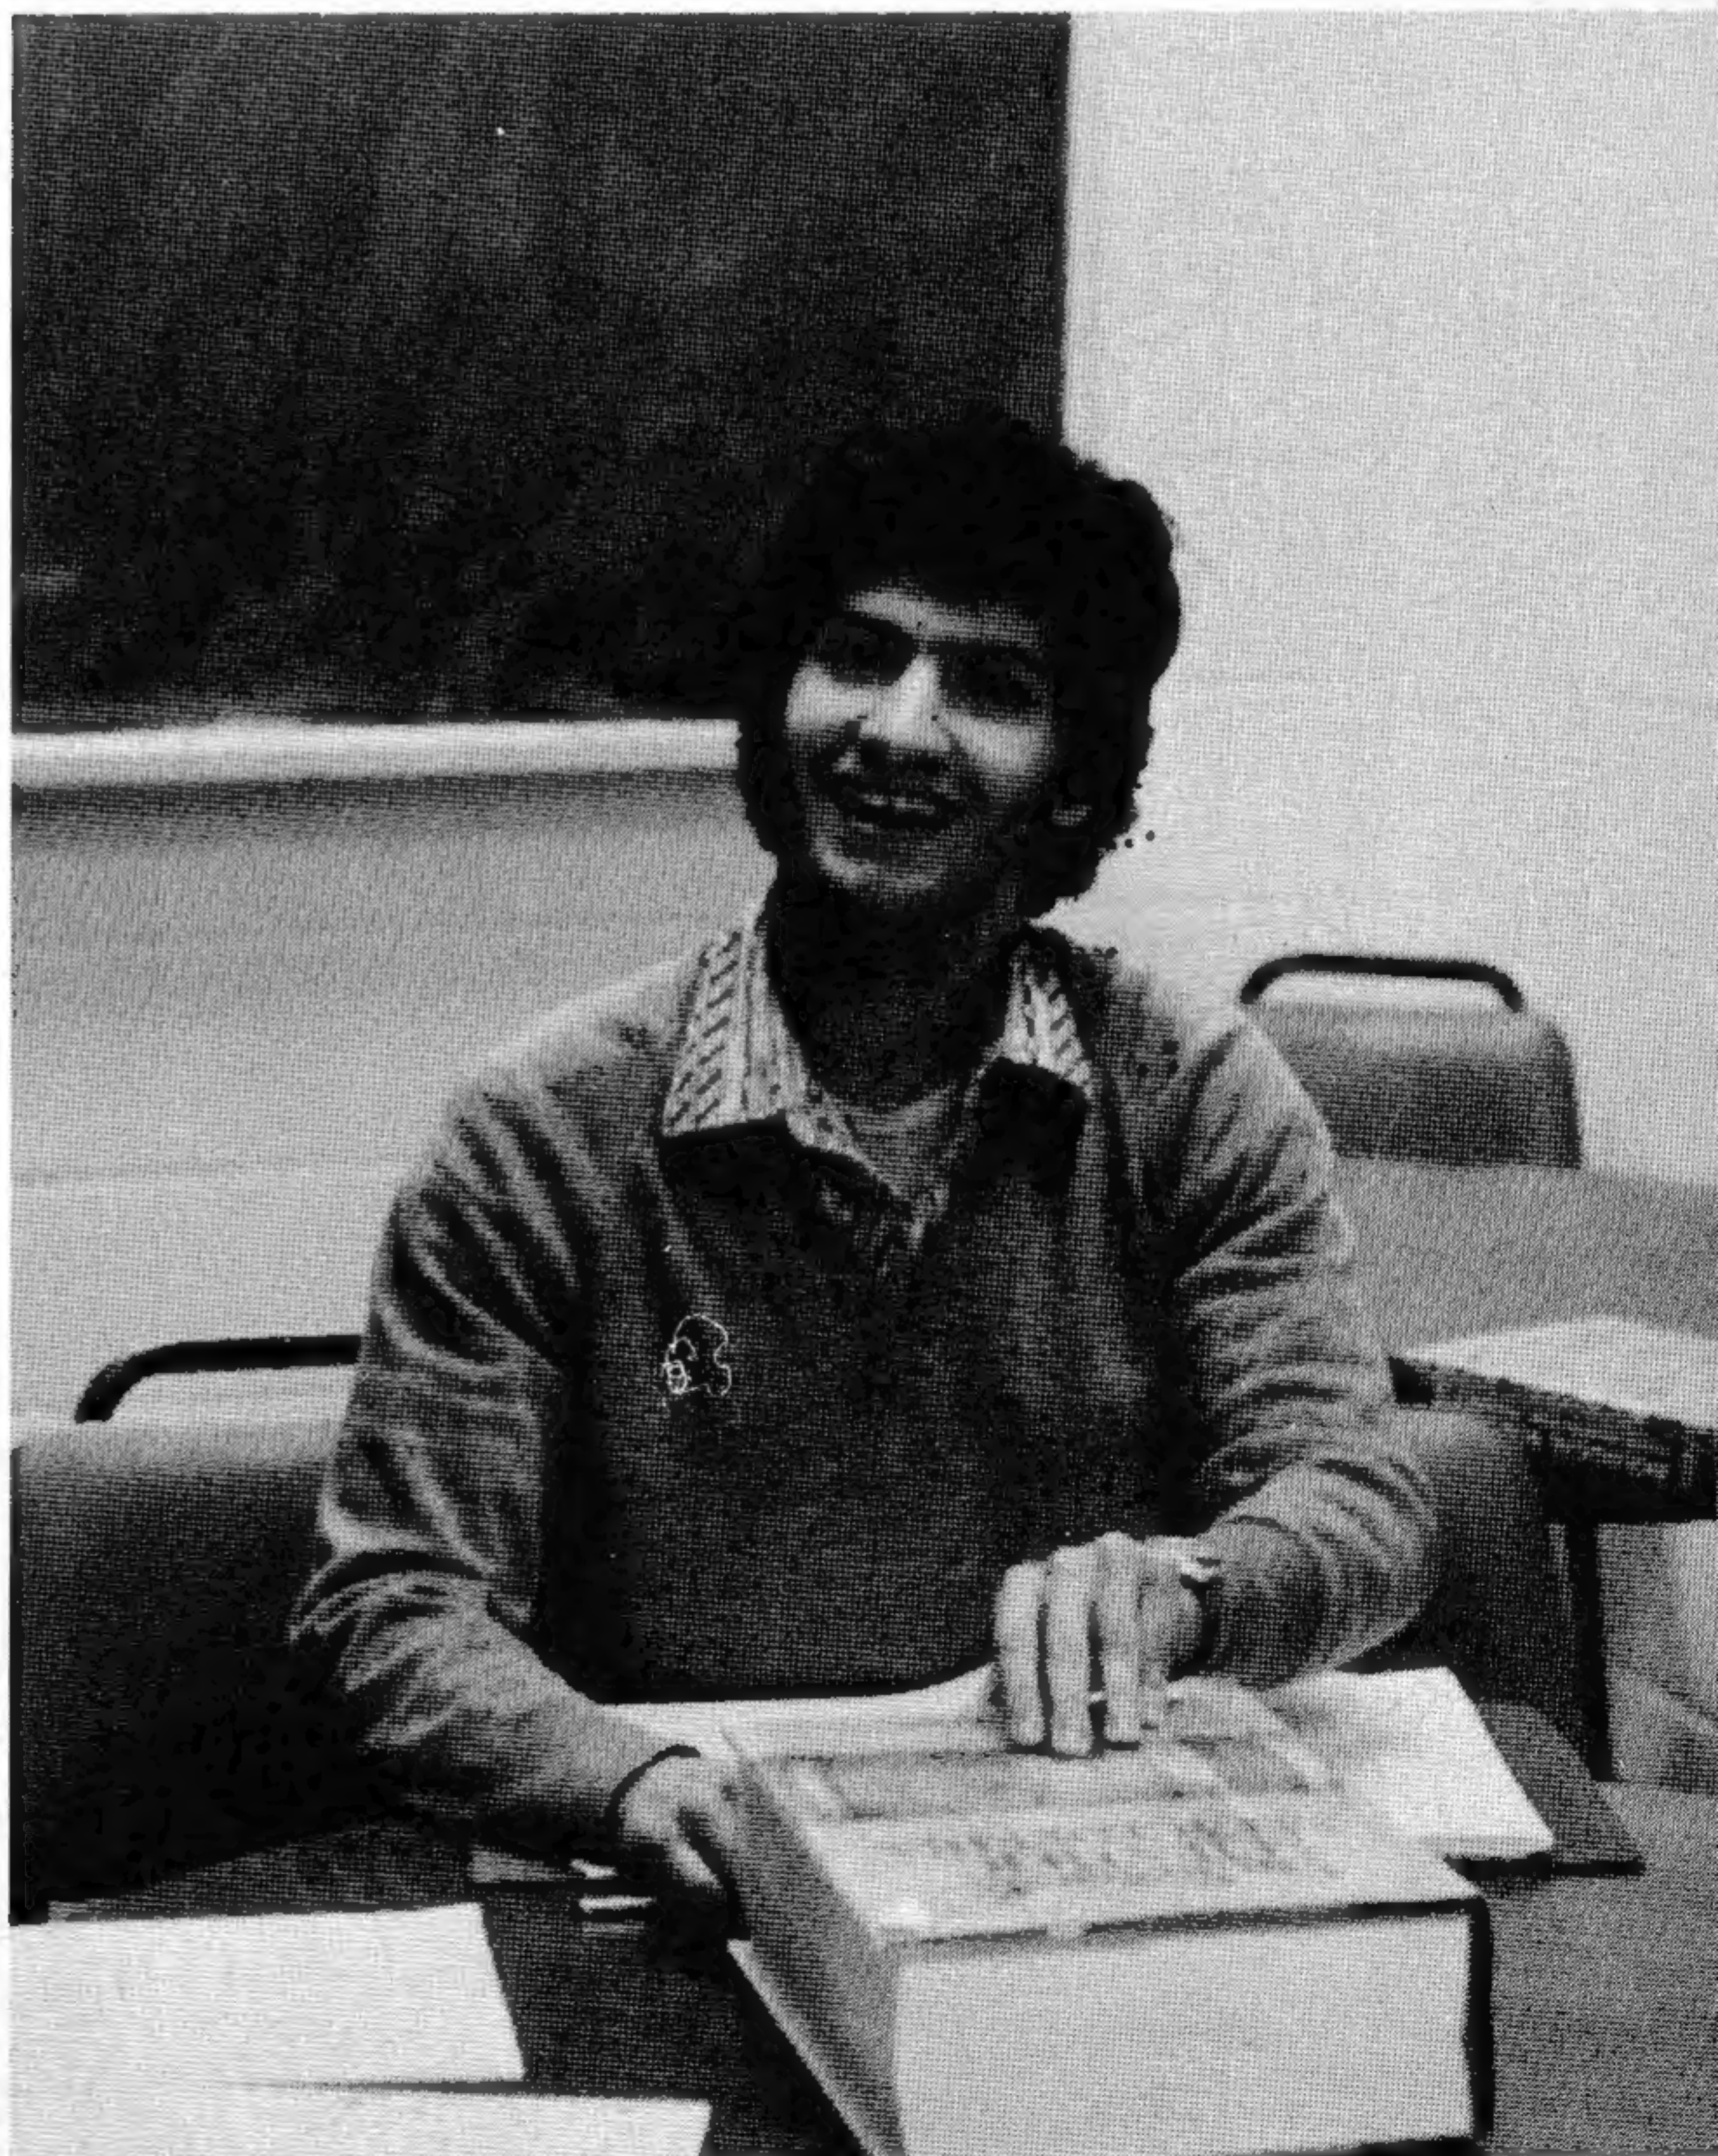
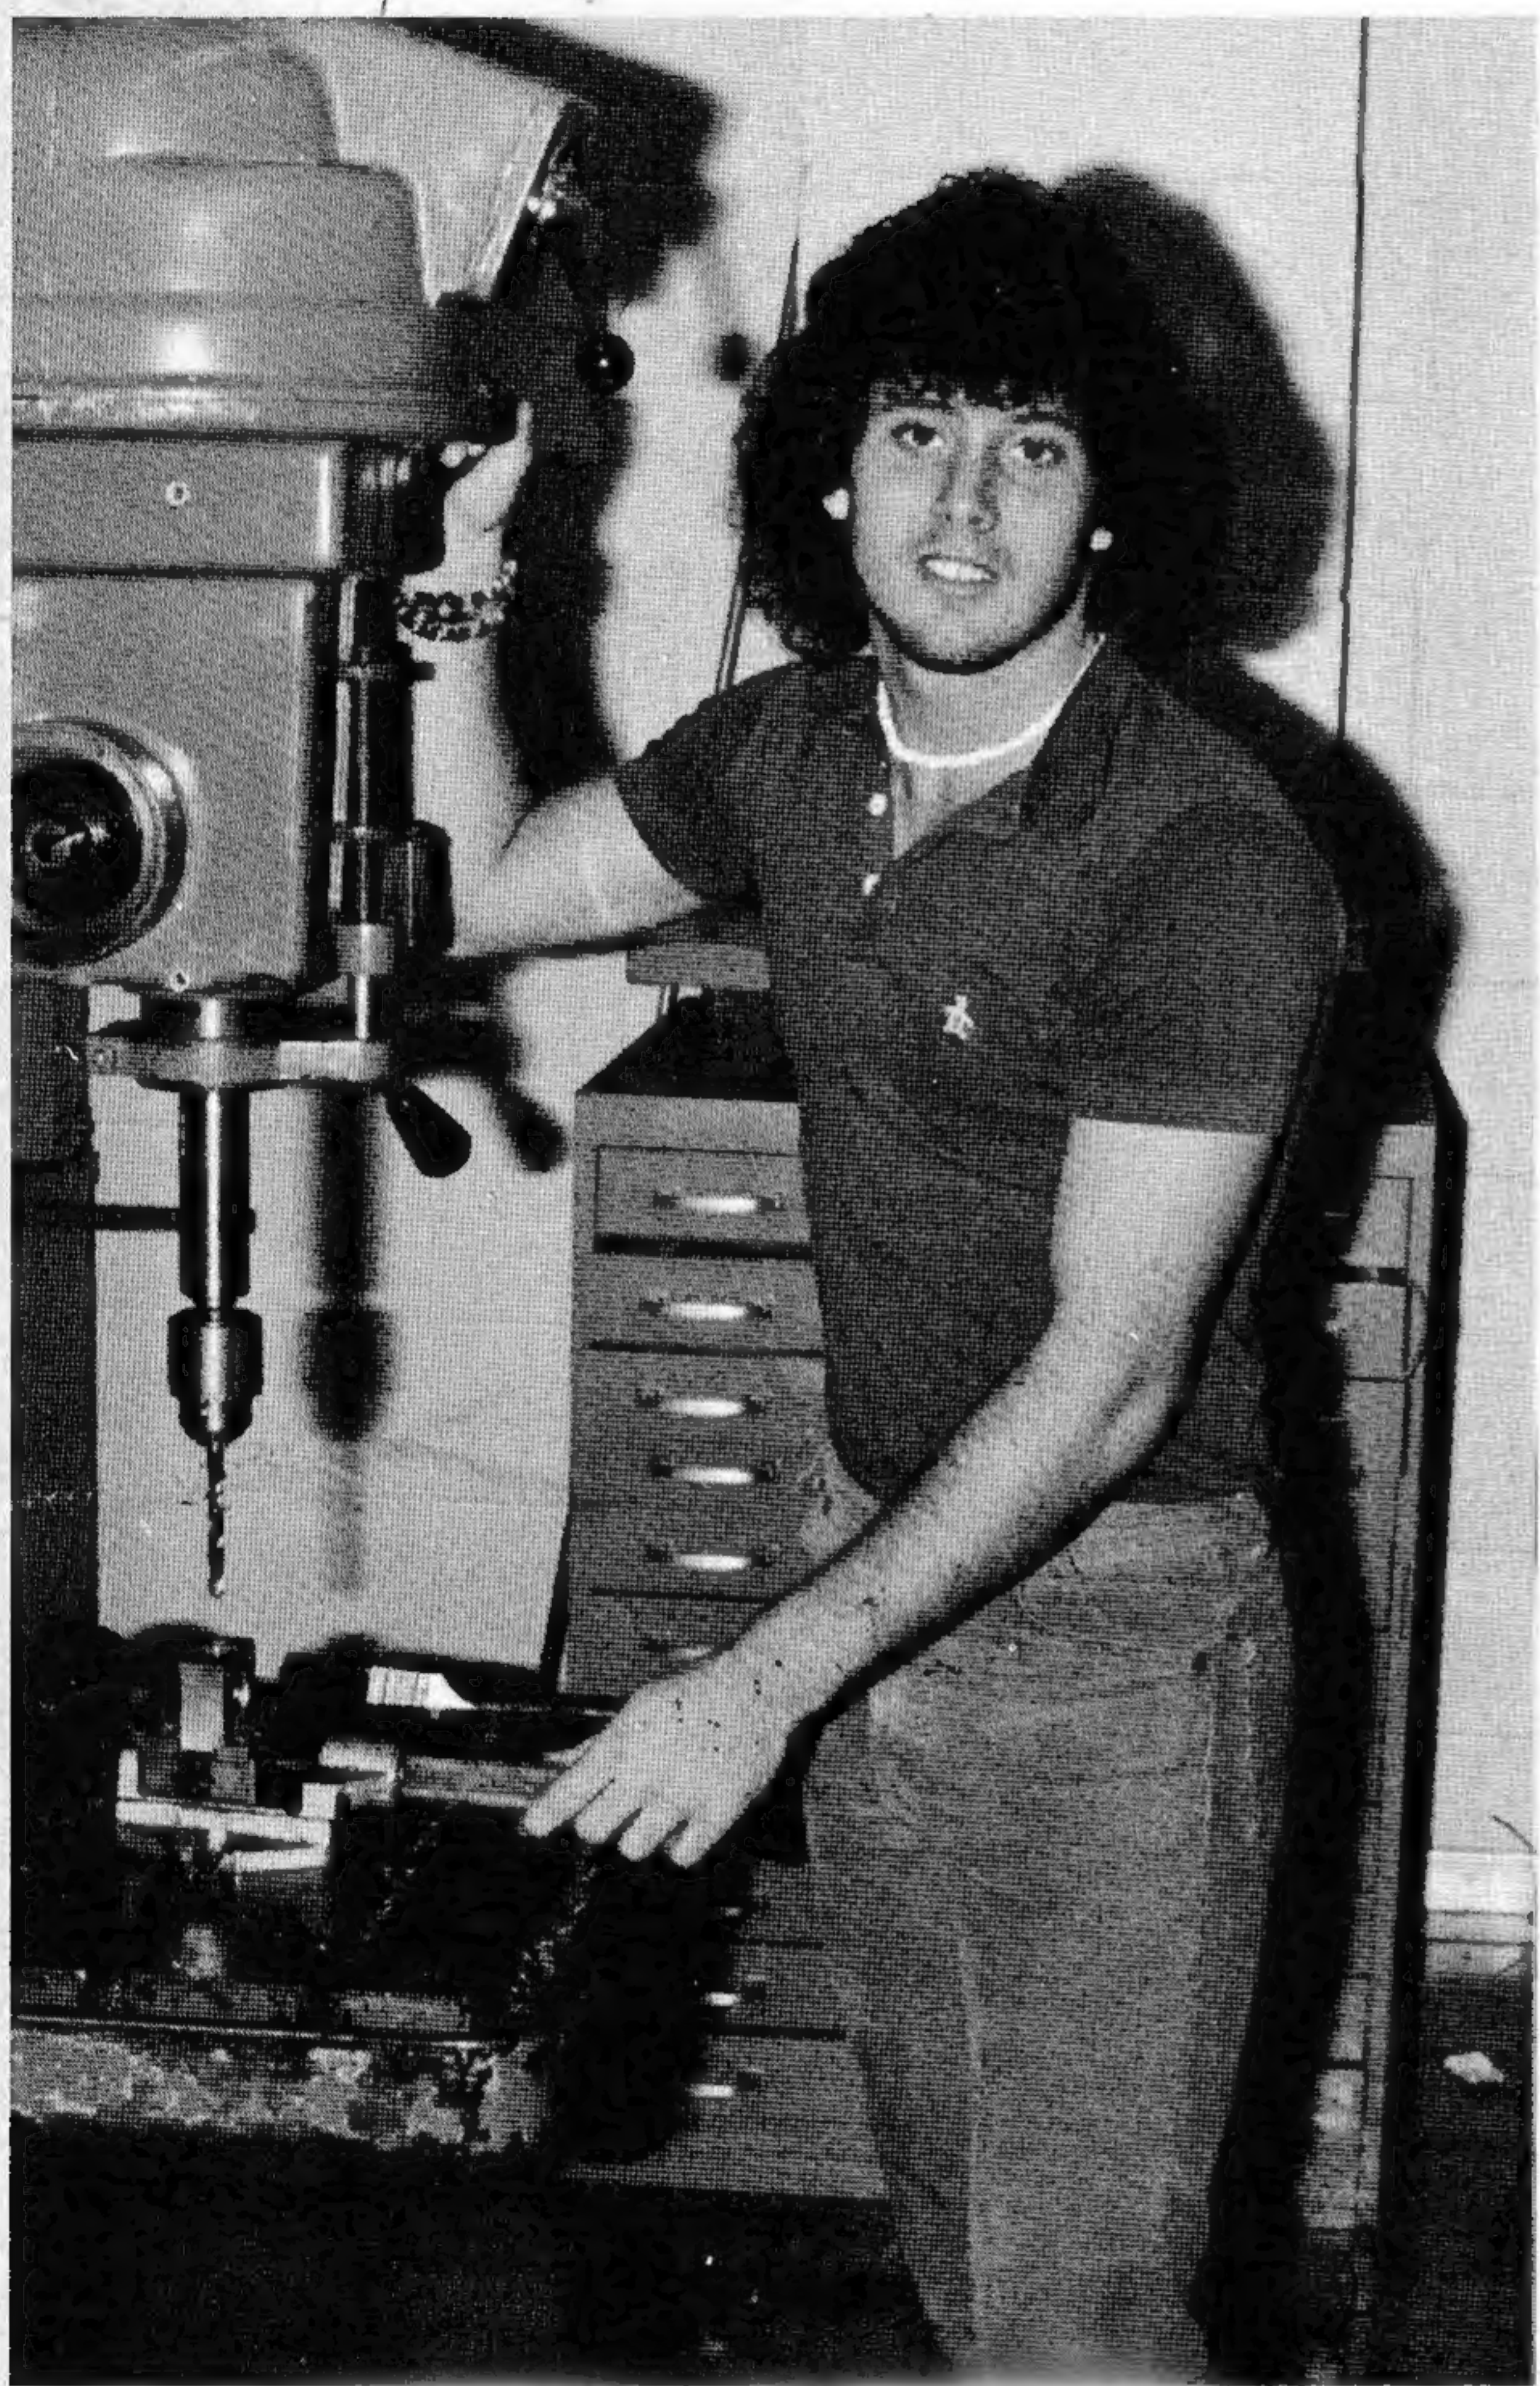
CENTRAL COLL. WELCOMES YOU
WESTON COLLEGIATE DONATIONS FOR SIMCOE RESCUE SQUAD!


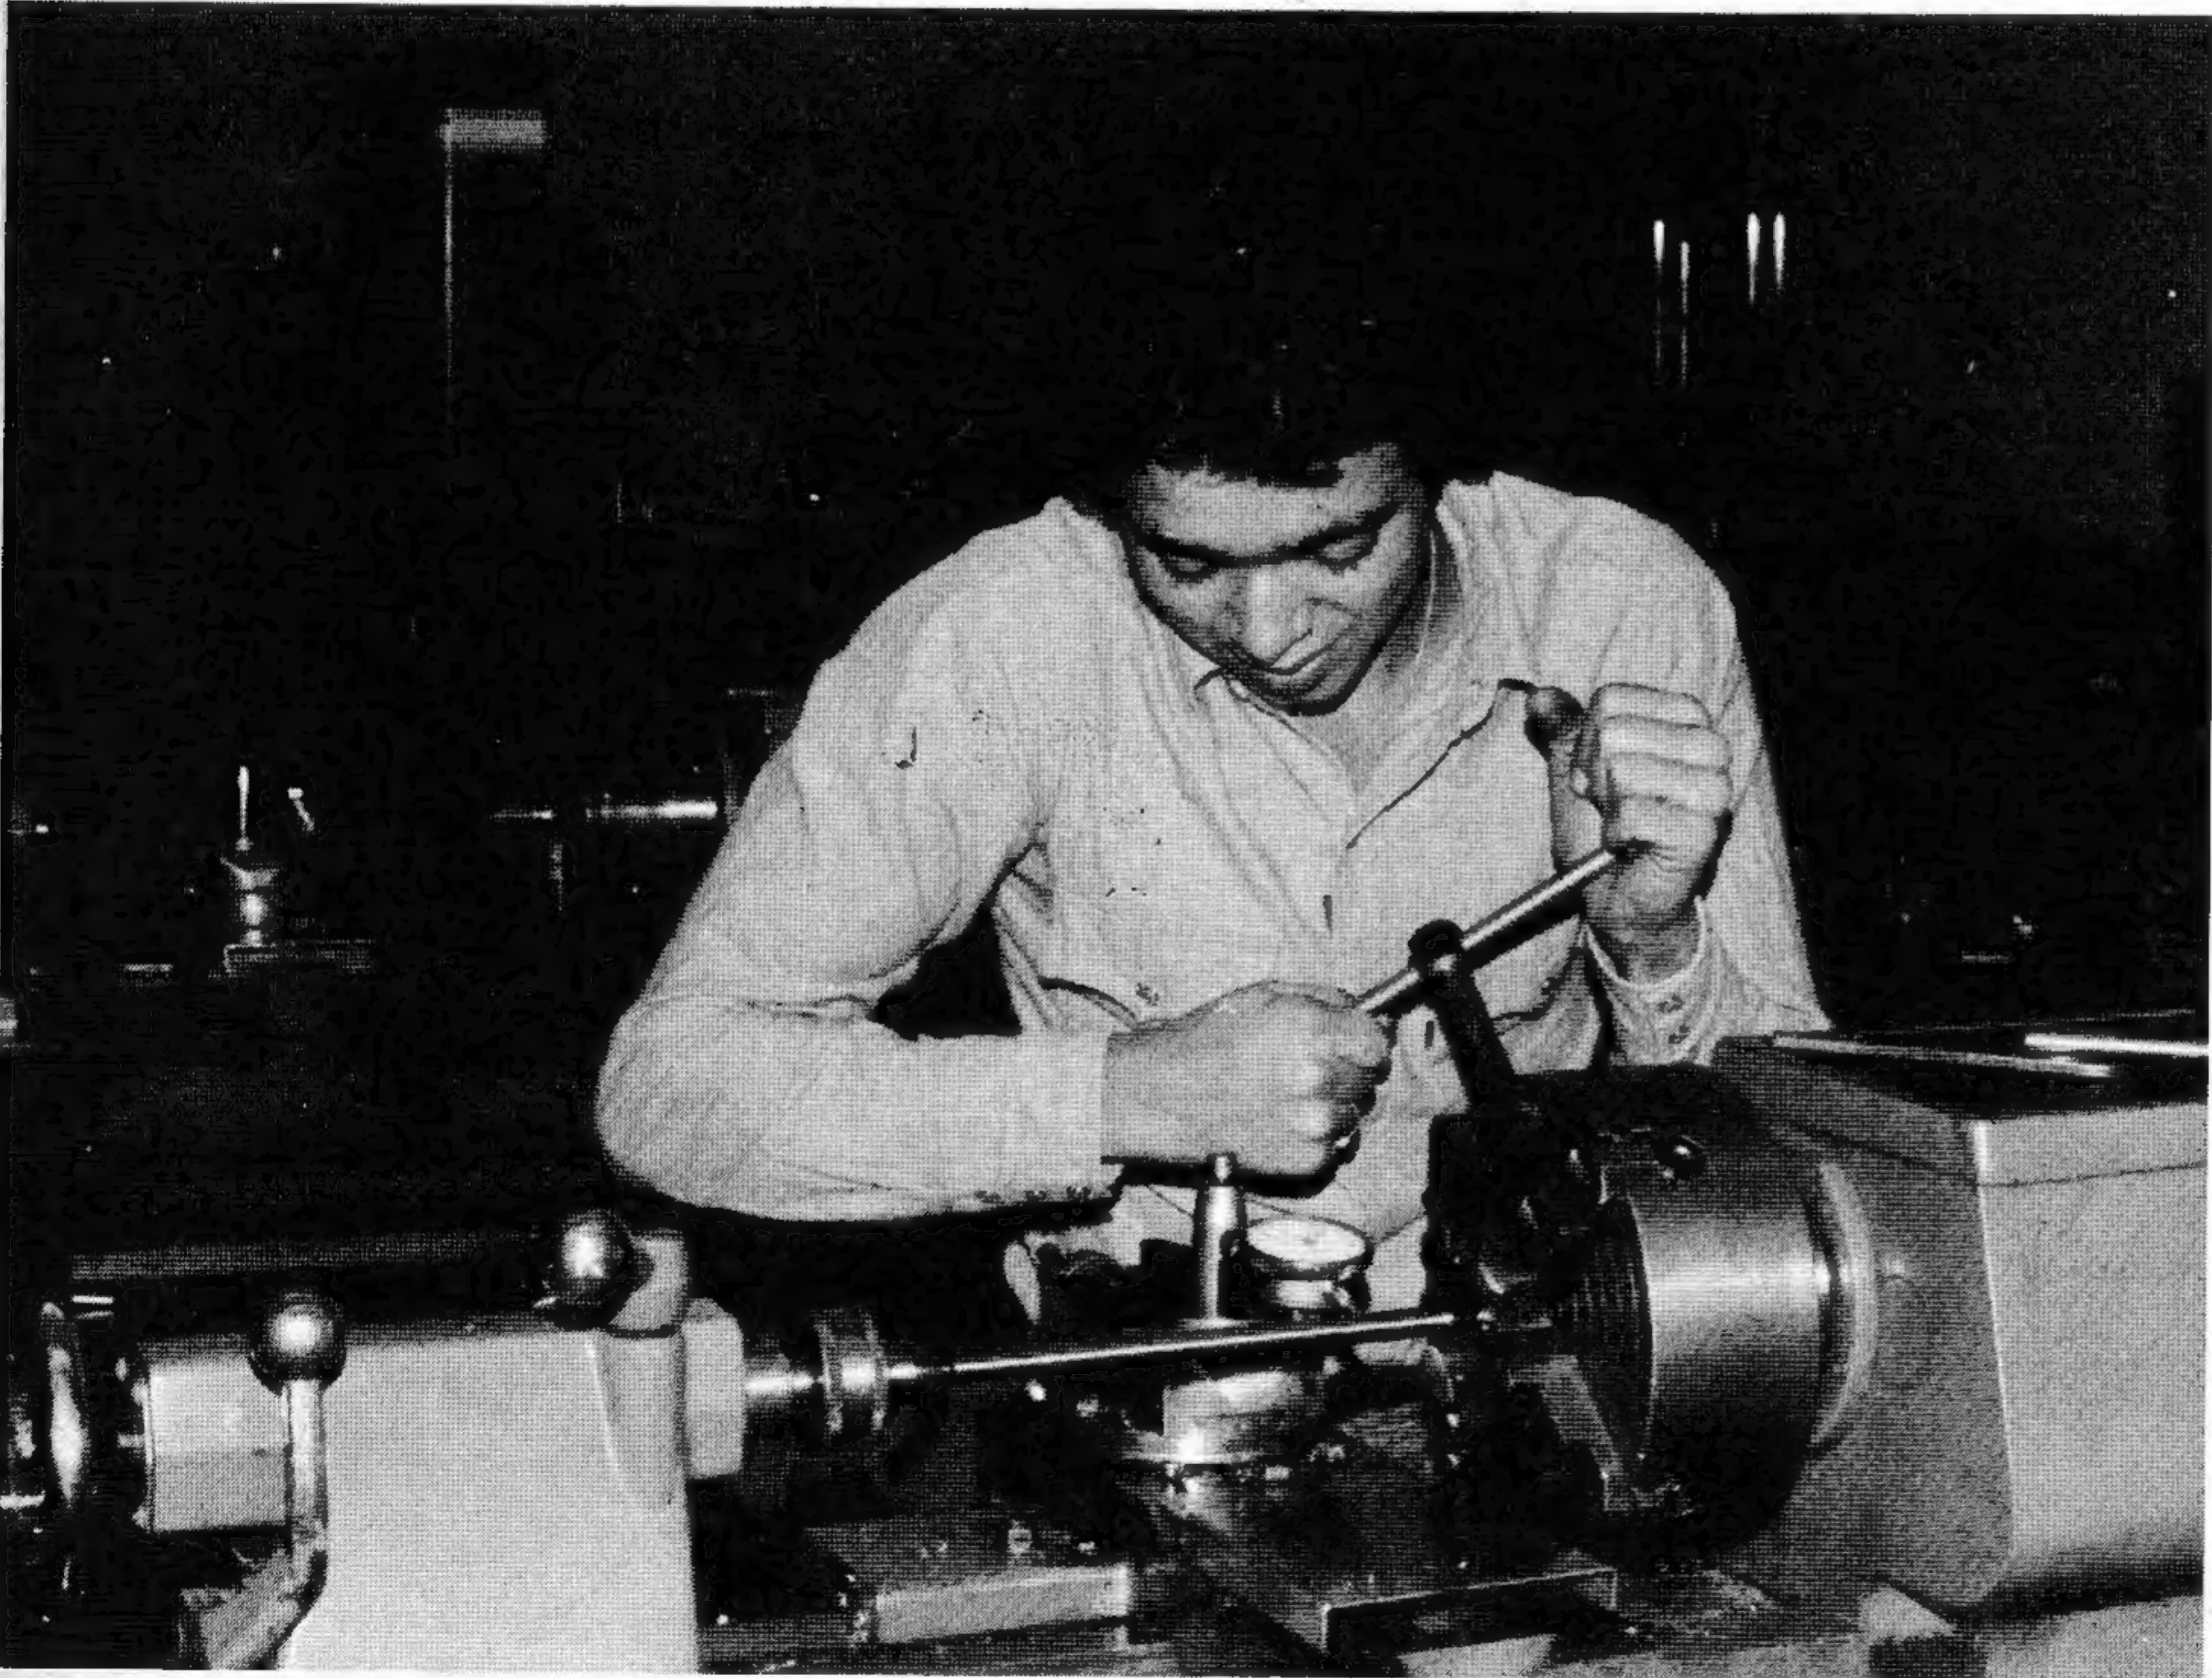


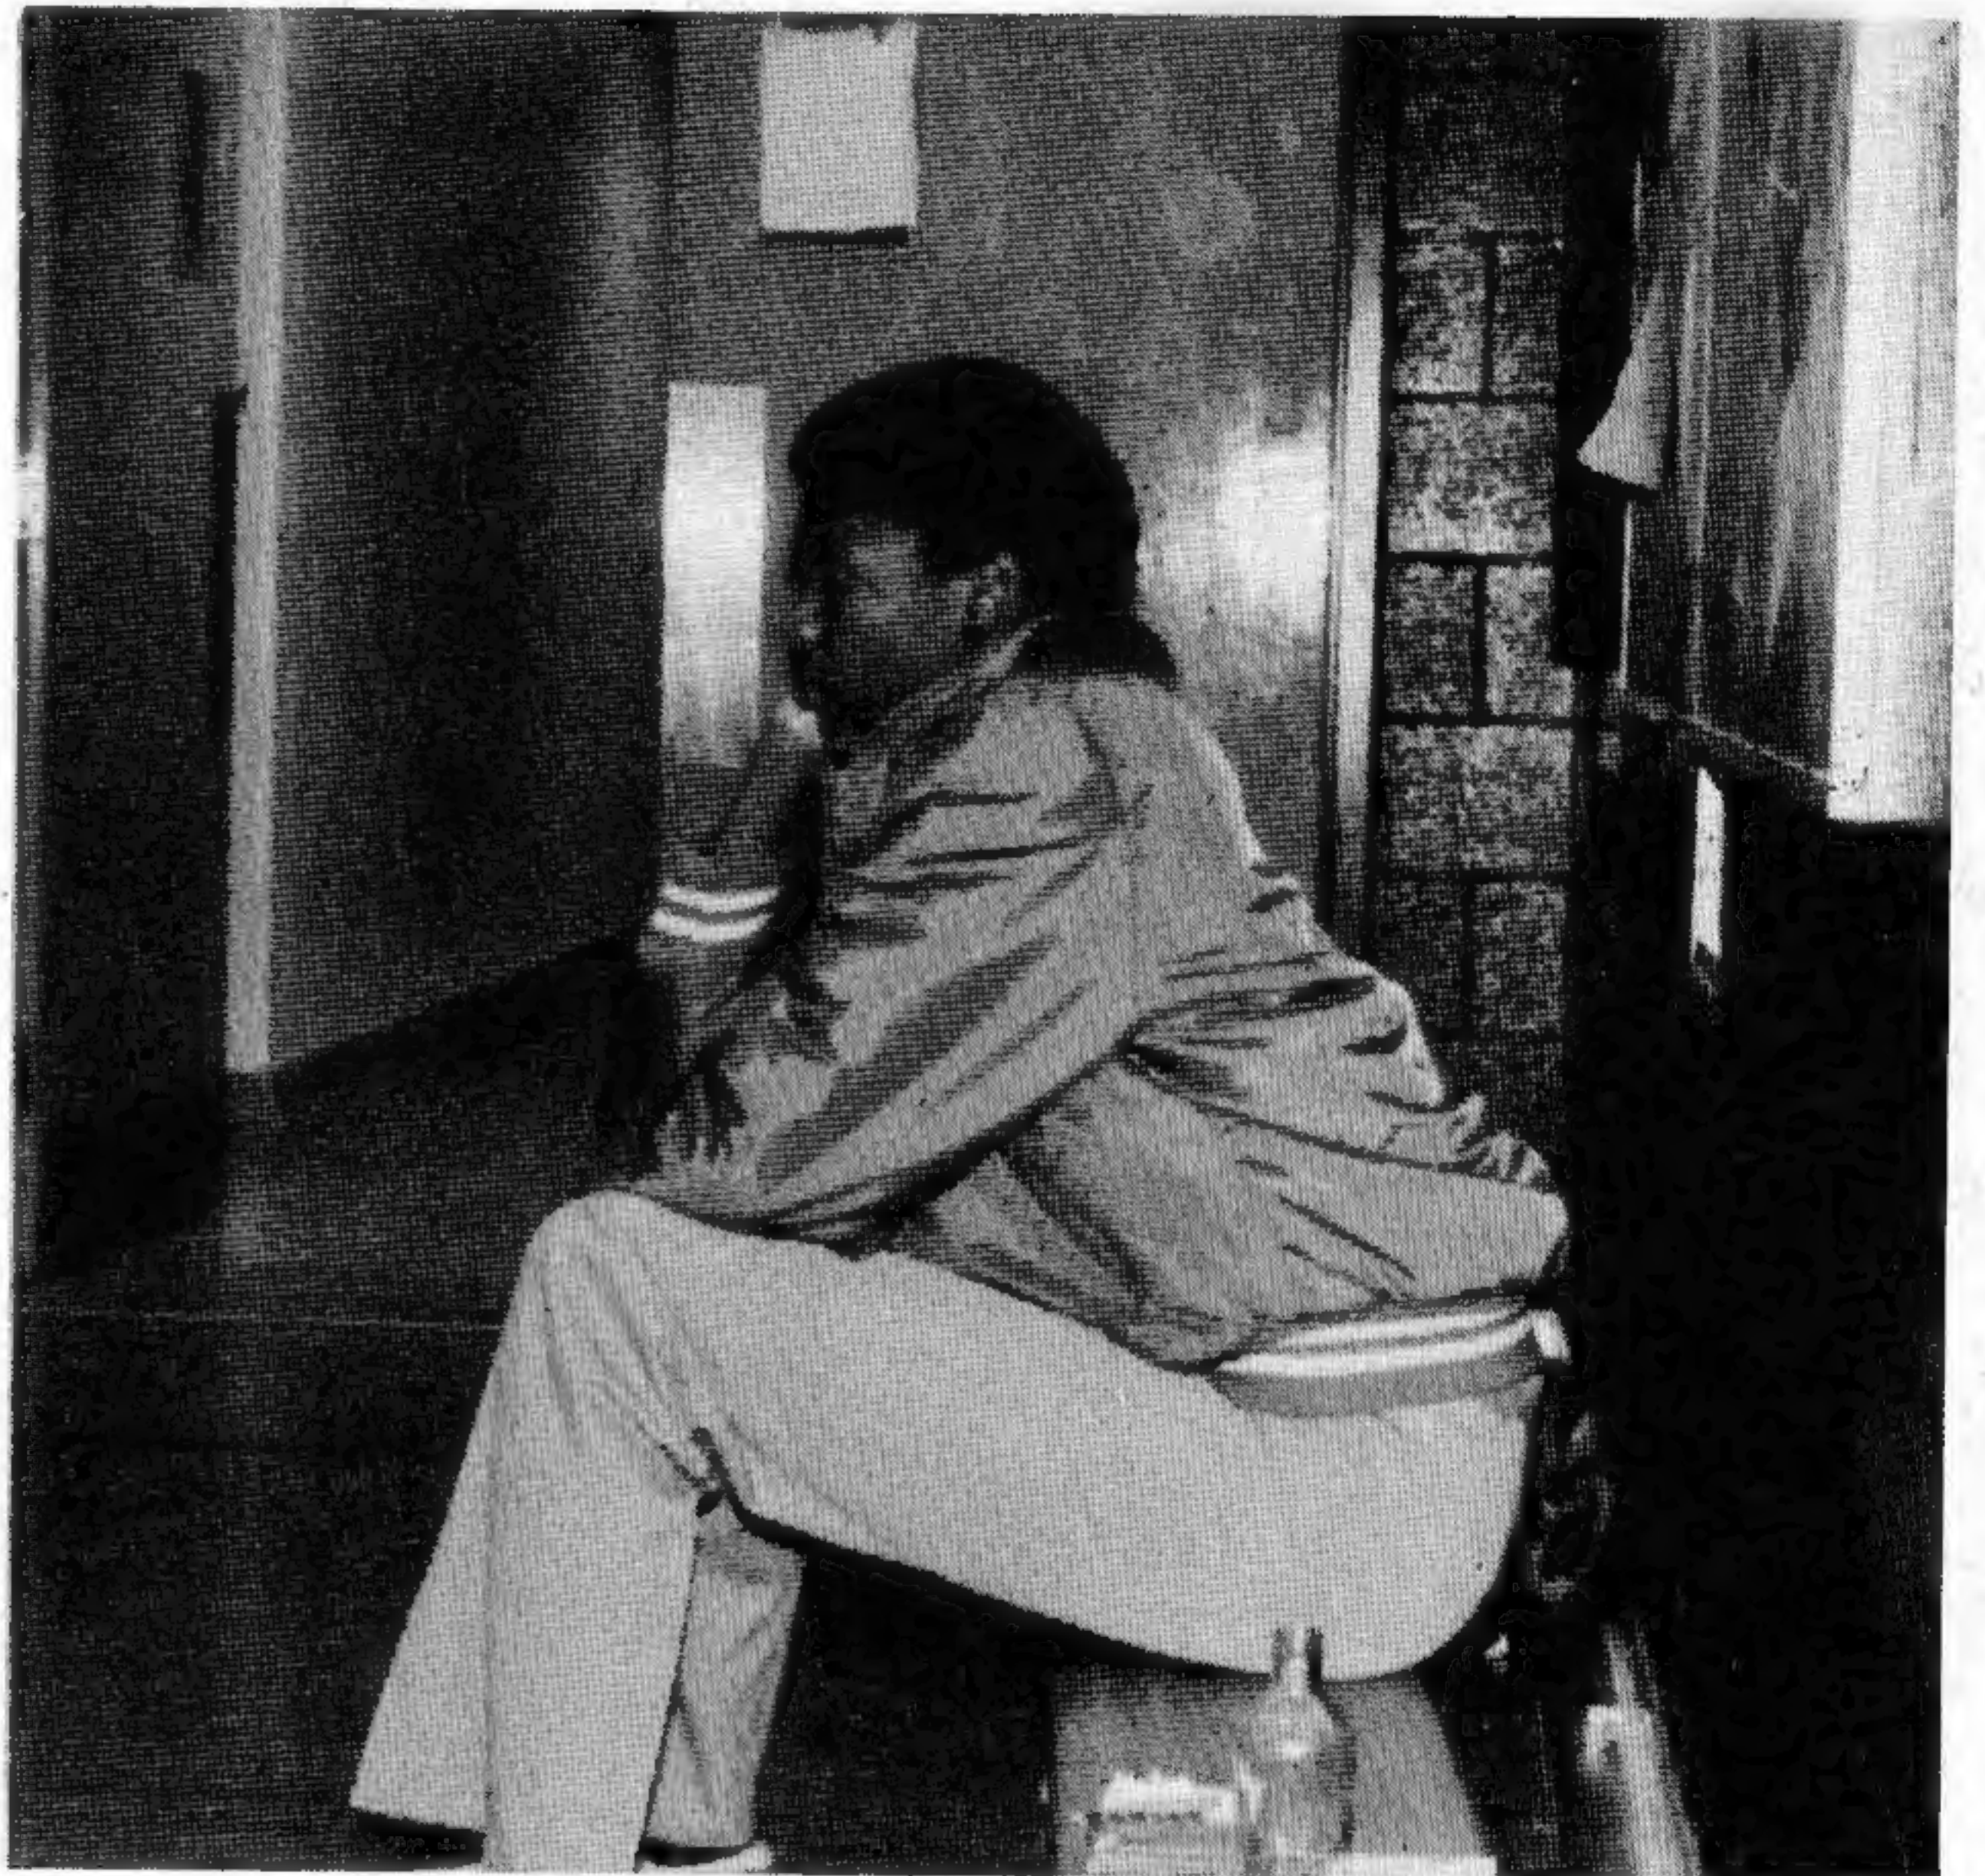


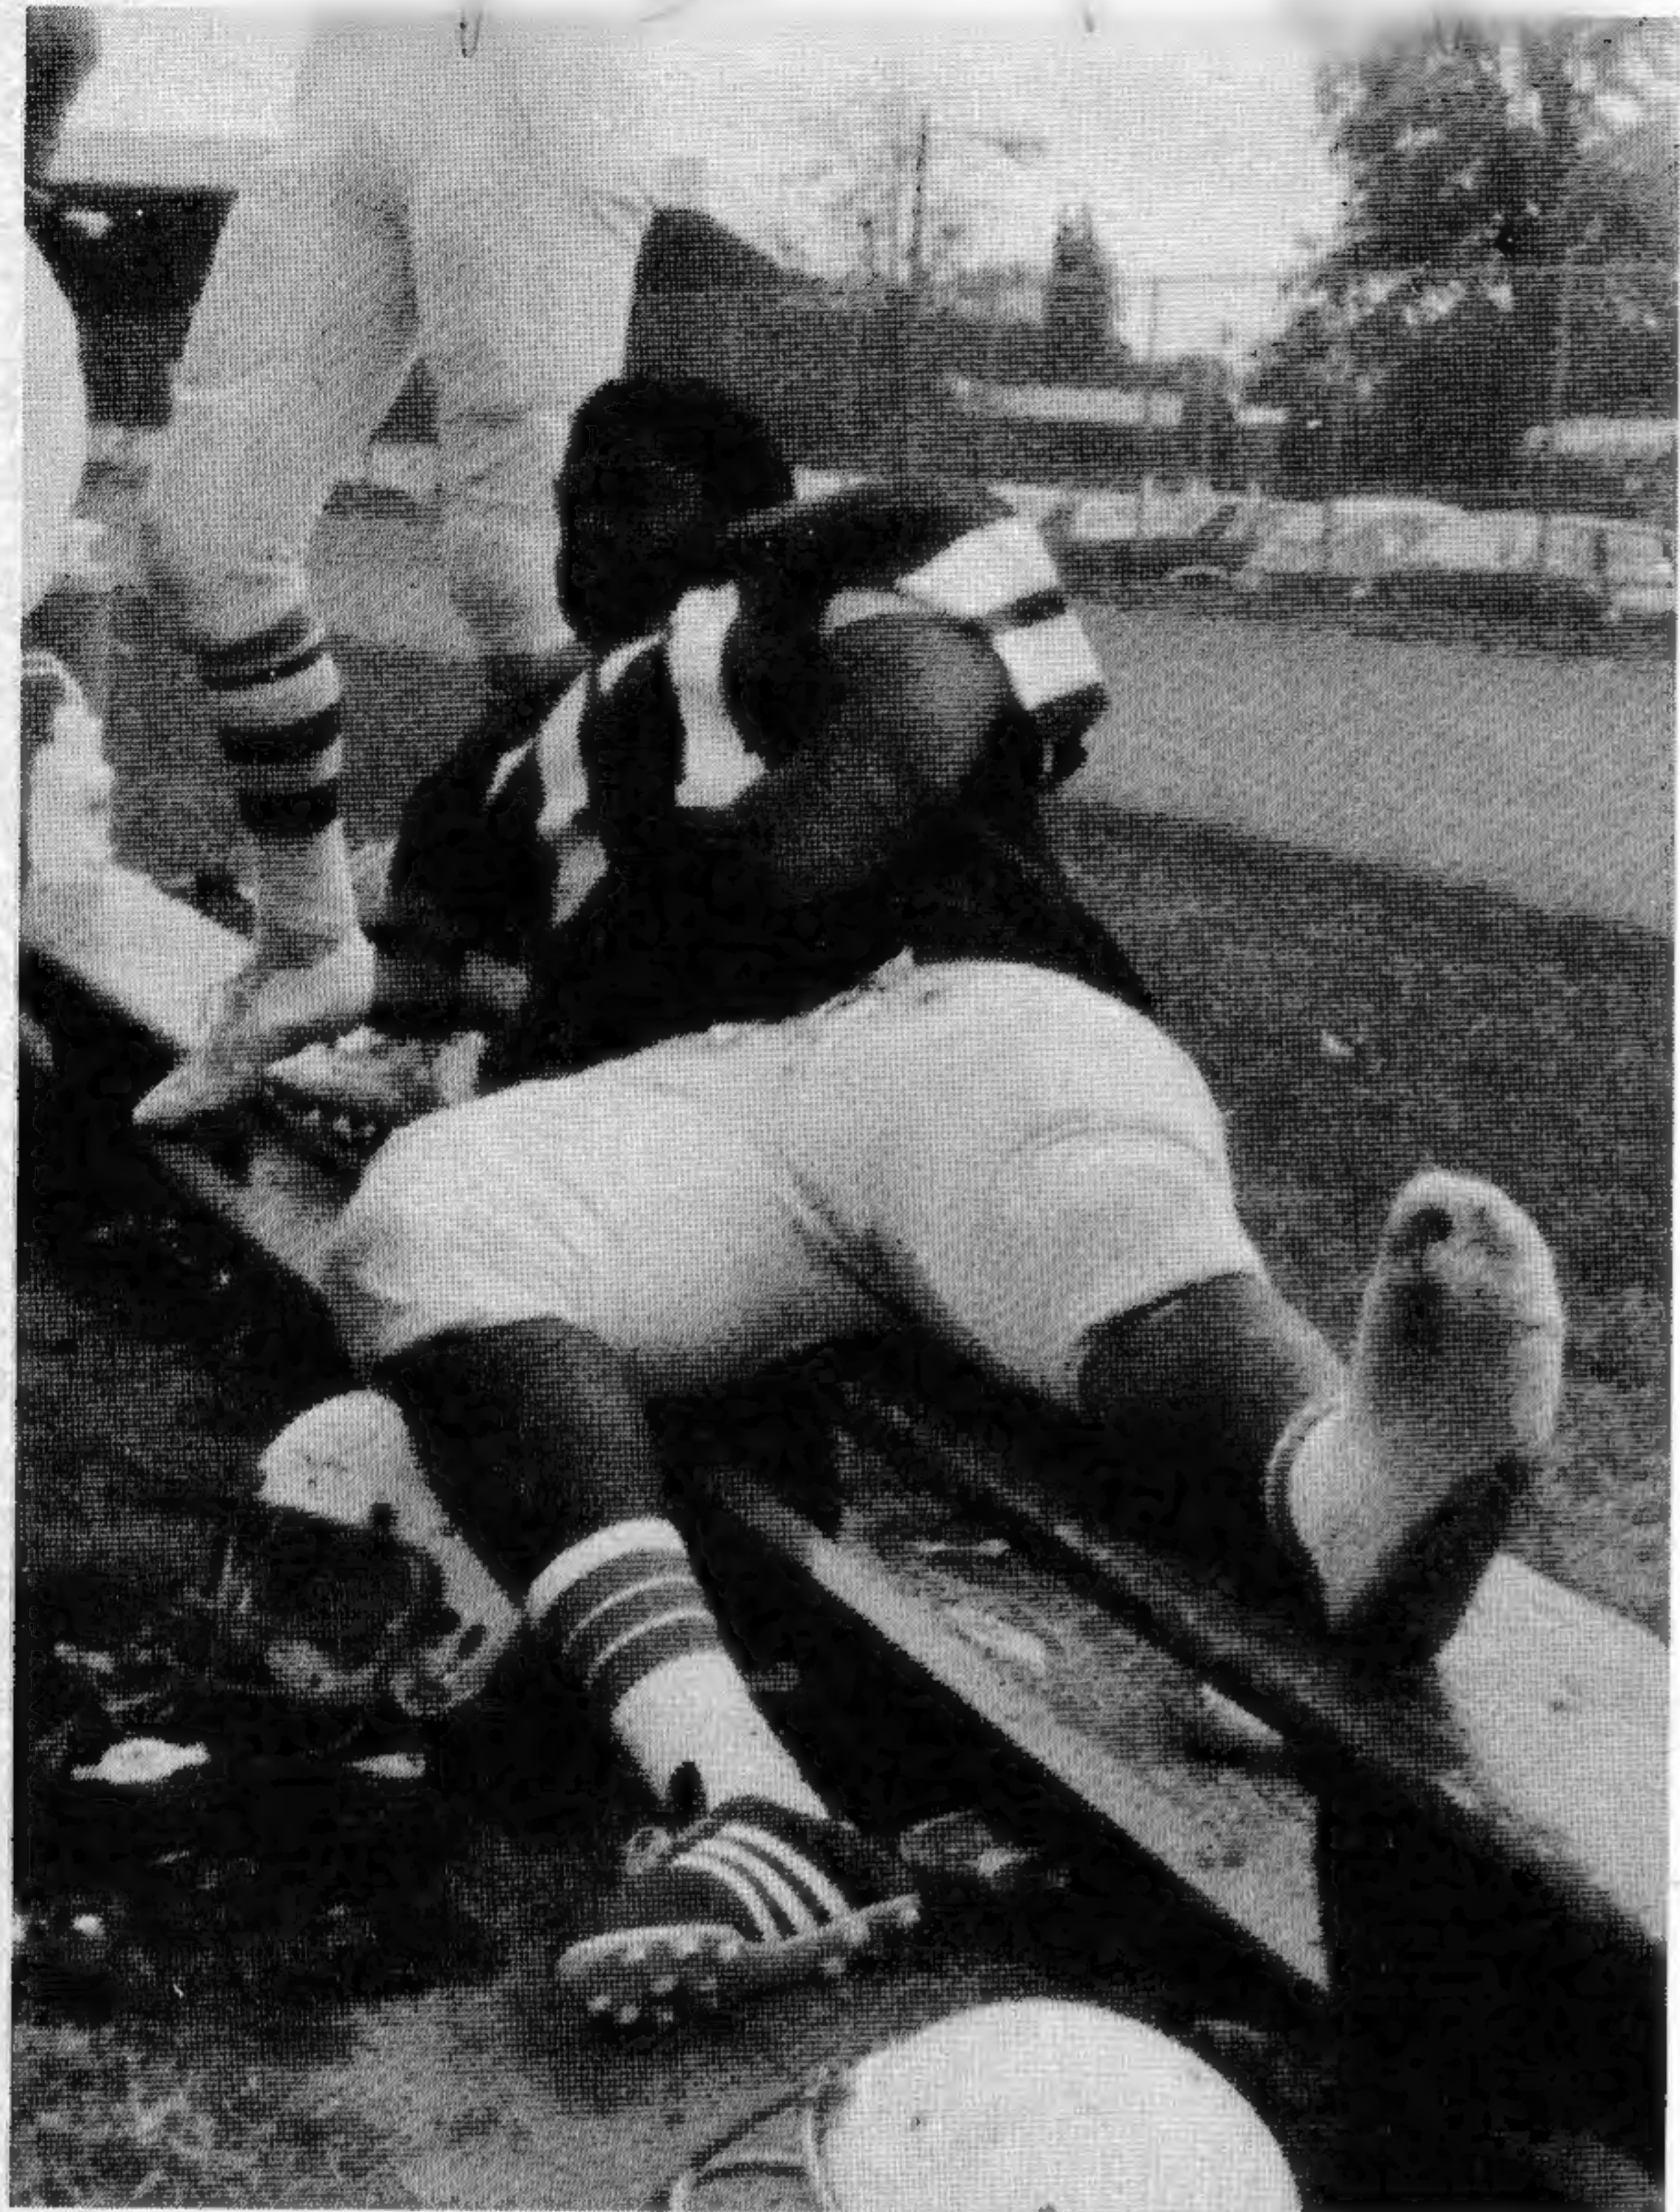












SIMCOE RESCUE SQUAD

Realizing last year was a long time ago
I was asked to write, so now I'll go
In respect to last year's charity drive
Our goal was $6000 and we made it alive.

We sold roses, tickets and stuffed this n that
We pushed mugs, milk chocolate and those big, blue hard hats
We guessed at the number that were in the jar
We danced and danced till the dawn was not far.

The largest donater, a wheelchair was pushed
To a welcoming crowd where our pushers seemed bushed
The Squad was happy, they needed the bucks
The gov't gives nothing, so they're out of luck.

At the end of the fun, the laughs and smiles
Into the aud we all did pile
For the final assembly, where no spirit lacked
The members of Simcoe gave us a plaque.

The charity drive was now over, all done
The plans would begin for the next to come
The following year when we'd do it once more
The good times we shared, was never a chore.

Remember the laughing?
Remember the fun?
Remember the year of 81!!!

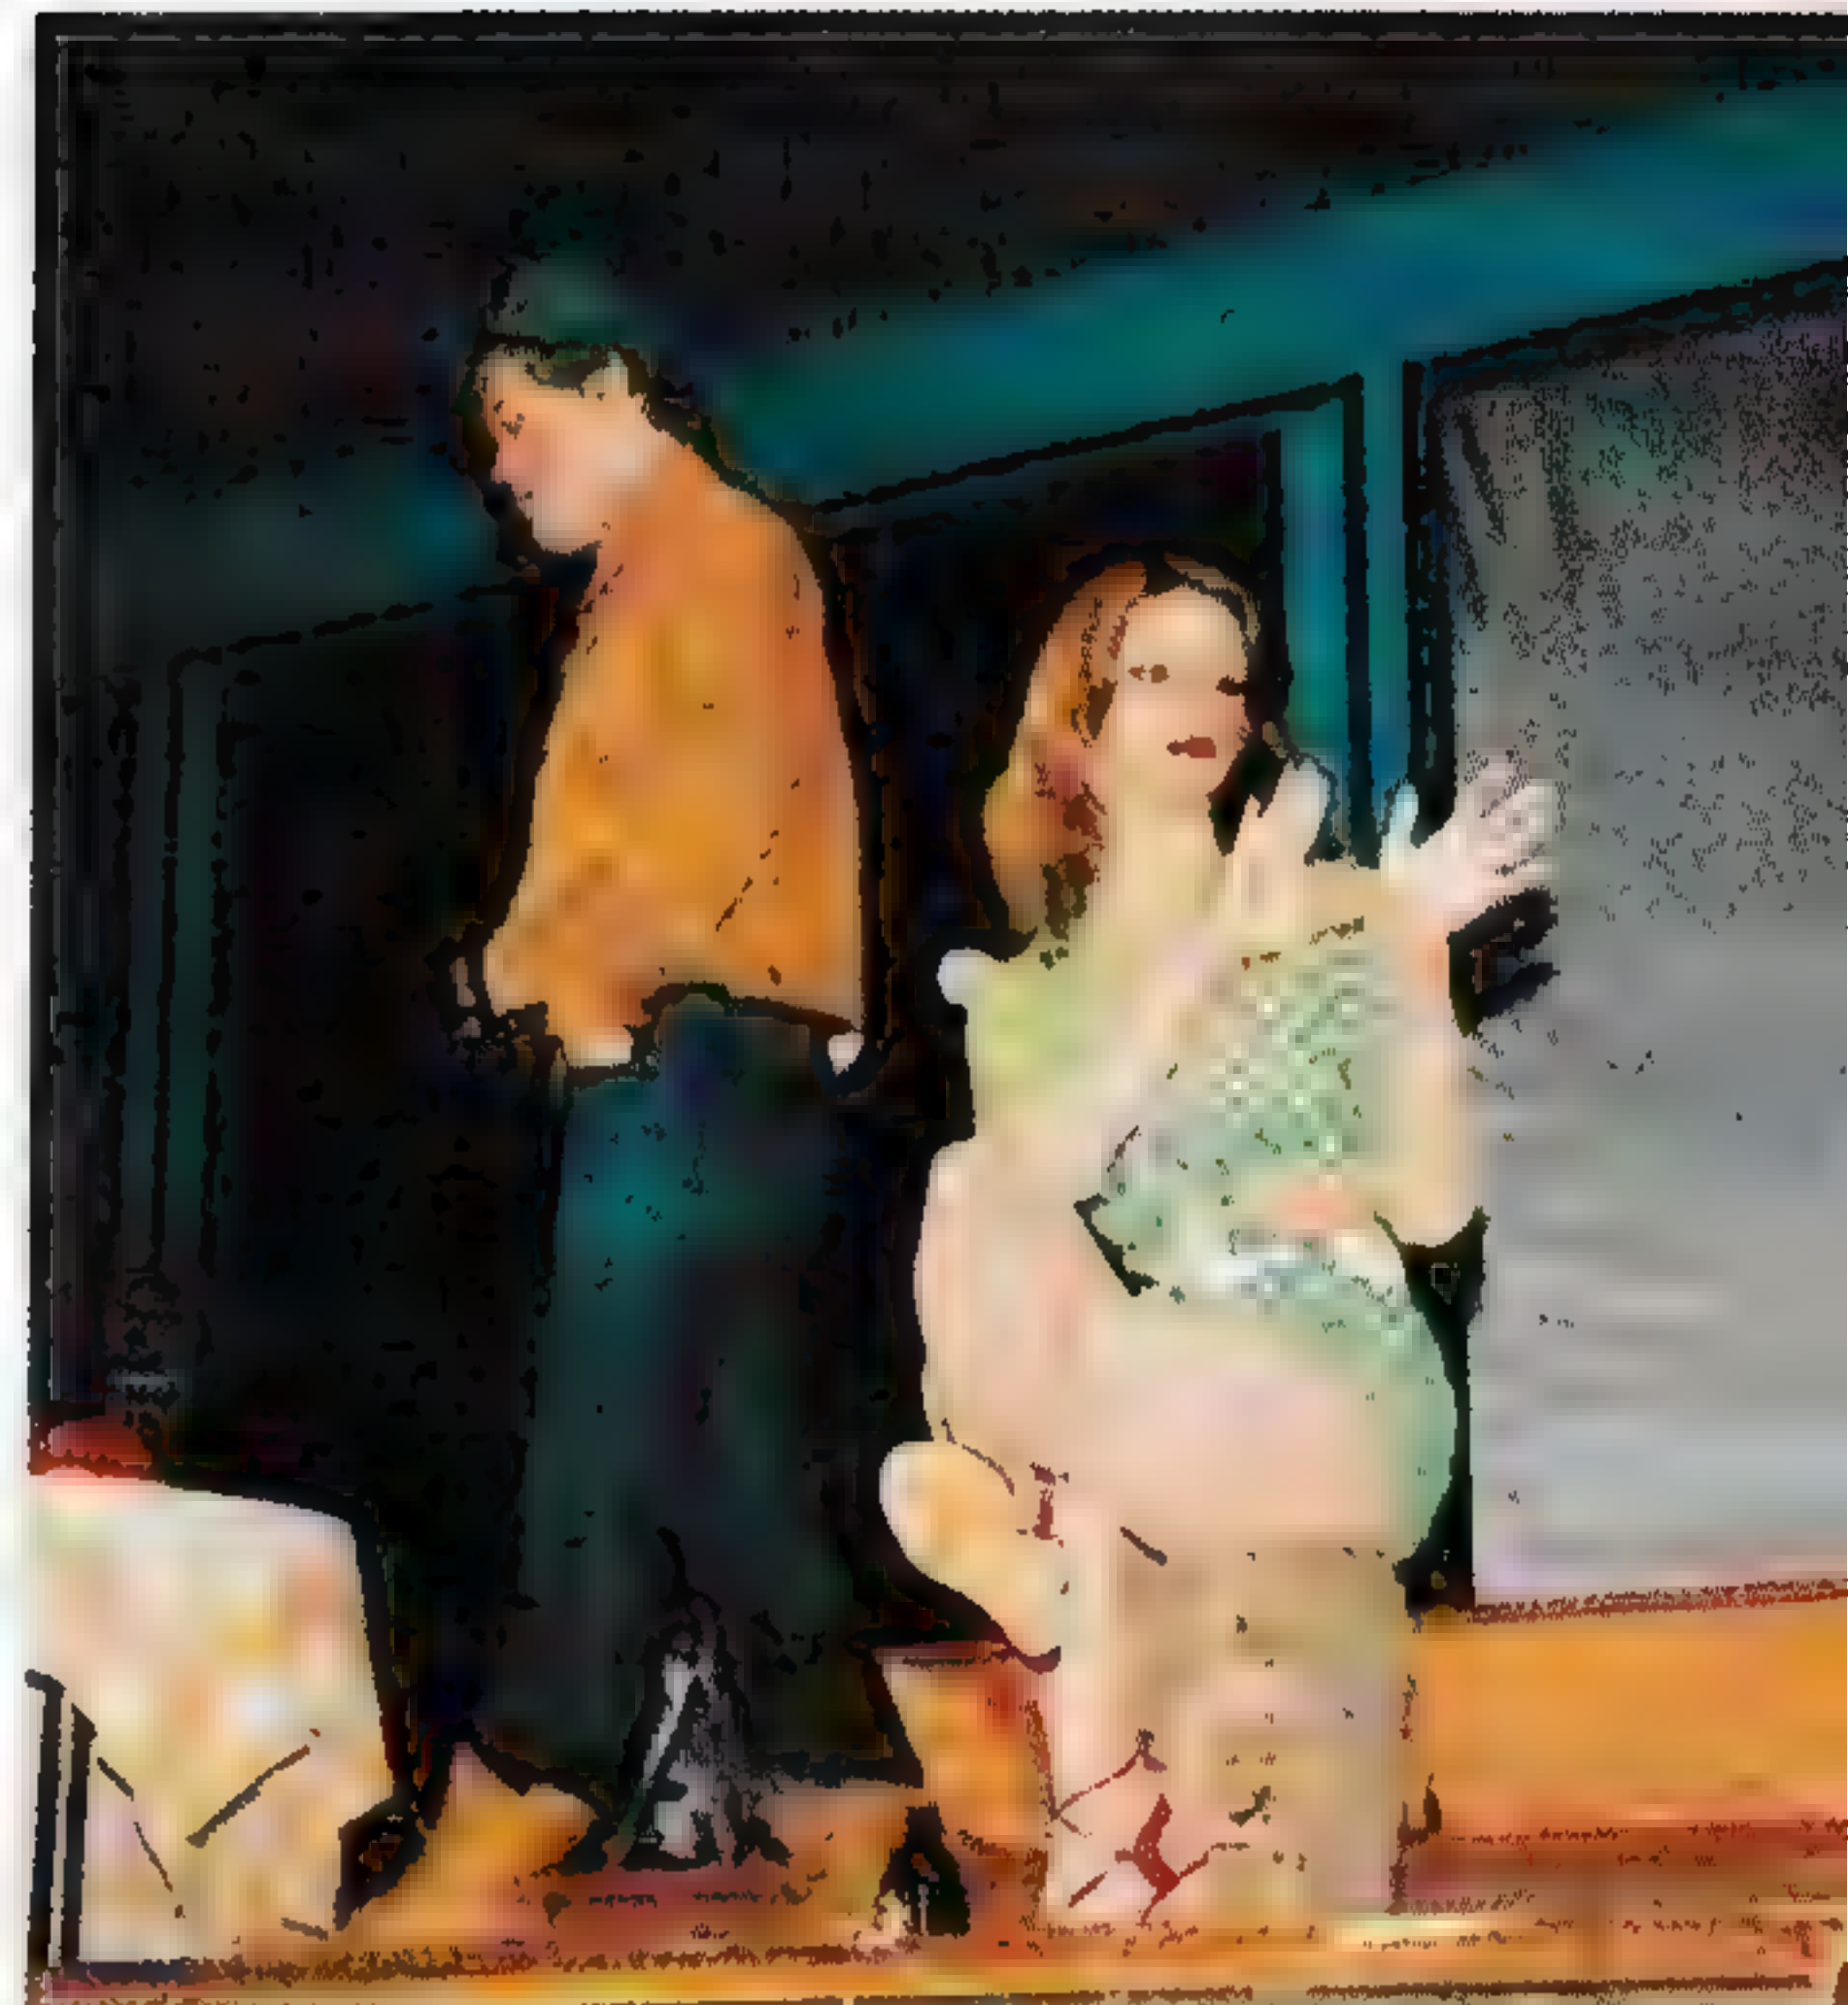
REFLECTIONS


CRUEL TEARS

Cruel Tears . . . a dramatic piece with country and western music and features by the all popular Saskatchewan musical group Gary and the Gearshifters, violent appeals to the emotions and a tragic ending. Our jealous hero, Johnny Roychuk, a truck driver in the Canadian West, was in love with Cathy Jensen, the bosses daughter, only their flame of passion was to be ended by Jack Deal, his best friend, who had a scheme to end all his misery of marriage. As the plan began to roll, Johnny's suspicion of deception lead to the strangulation of his wife Cathy and the stabbing of his best friend.

One cannot forget the wonderful performance of the mimes, who entertained us as household appliances, truck tires and other props; but this year's spring production was only made possible through a combination of talents of all those involved presenting us with an imaginative and memorable performance.

TAKE ME BACK TO MANHATTAN

The interest in drama at Weston continues to expand in many directions. This year it was the sell-out trip to New York City and the chance to see two broadway shows.

On a brisk Thursday morn, 45 students and 4 teachers bussed away to the land of skyscrapers and entertainment. And what a place it is, this theatre capital of the world.

For 2 1/2 days we revelled in the perpetual motion of theatre, television, fashion, politics and high finance; and what sights we saw: from the dizzying heights of the World Trade Centre, to the low of a Times Square pickpocket; from the earthiness of Greenwich Village and Soho to the overwhelming elegance of Park Avenue townhouses.

Within 2 blocks of the memorable Picadilly Hotel, we saw the favourite musical revue, "Ain't Misbehavin," and the very dramatic "Children of a Lesser God." Other moments were spent in search of stars, visits to the U.N., Central Park, Harlem, The Museum of Natural History, the Statue of Liberty, Wall Street, and of course Charlie's.

Sunday morning brought a tear to our eyes and a tear to the skies as the rain accompanied us home. Finally Ms. Bleier, Ms. MacIntosh, Mr. Miller and I could relax. Our man, Dave the bus driver, chauffered us back through twelve hours home . . . Maybe again some time . . . Take me back to New York.

OLD TIMES -- GOOD TIMES

As I sit here again in this same old place
I remember the look I saw last on your face
You looked at me as though I should understand
But you know I can't now and never can

We were once so happy, I prayed it would last
And now all that is in the past
I hope that we can share again
The love we once knew and both felt then

Janine Desrocher

THE CLASSROOM

Sitting, listening to mindless people talking, shouting.

I sit and smile for I think of better thoughts.

The shouting continues with mouths twisting in anxiety.

The eyes are dark and frosty with hate.

The thinking continues with thoughts of mountains
and football games.

Mary Ellen Lang

SEASONS OF FRIENDSHIP

Through Fall we laugh and sing together,
Through Winter we say "Friends Forever";
Through Spring we yell, scream and fight,
While Summer things become just right.

And one day, I'll remember, with tears in my eyes,
The years that have passed with hellos and good-byes;
I'll remember all of you in a special way,
Because you were sunshine on gloomy days.

You made me laugh, and you made me cry,
And days, I think, we should never say good-bye;
But right now we're just the greatest of friends,
Even if this school year has to end.

Claudette Grange

A BAD DAY

I overslept and missed my train, slipped on the sidewalk
in the pouring rain,
sprained my ankle,
skinned my knees,
broke my glasses,
lost my keys,
got stuck in the elevator,
it wouldn't go,
kicked it twice and stubbed my toe bought a pen that didn't write,
took it back and had a fight,
went home angry
locked the door,
crawled into bed
couldn't take anymore.

LOOK INTO HIS EYES . . .

Look into his eyes,
They engage you with surprise,
His warm and gentle grin,
Awakens you within,
His features smooth and clear,
Stay with you through the year,
And your heart grows stronger,
Whenever he talks to you,
Yet in his deep thoughts,
You know your never there,
And your heart grows dark with despair,
You find it hard to talk to him
You find he's still caught within,
And you find the bond won't break,
And you can't let go!

THE TRUTH DOESN'T SHOW

You only live once, or so they say
I'm holding my breath day by day
Always confused, withered and torn hoping and then dreaming the next morn
Will the truth come now or then?
Our lives so short, time never stands still
Will my time come by chance or by will?
Each moment passing is each moment lost
Yesterday is gone
All we can do is travel forward fast
We will never return to the past
We must fulfil our days now before it's too late
But it is too late already for we have been born
And hence we are dying: condemned since the moment of life
Do these words strung together in sentence have meaning?
Look deep into these words, I beg you
For there is a trick
Find what I'm feeling and let it stick
Look for what is not there and then you will know
But I doubt you'll find it for the truth doesn't show.

THE SONG REMAINS THE SAME

The song remains the same
No matter what you do
Whether you are
Climbing a stairway to heaven
Crossing the ocean
Or if you are
Dazed and confused
In the light you see
The fool in the rain
Yet it's nobody's fault but mine
Everyone sees the kashmir linings
Even me in my time of dying
Over the hills and far away
You see the people on celebration day
That's the way life will be Especially in the houses of the holy
Down by the seaside
You can see Achilles last stand
Your time is gonna come
When life has no quarter
We'll meet at the crunge
Of the gallow's pole.

HOSER DAY

Like, it was Hoser Day in November, eh?! And like all the Weston Hosers showed their true inner selves, eh? But you know like some people played too much beerhunter before their back bacon breakfasts, eh! So, like in the words of a true hoser, take off!

Yesterday's Pine River

This is the third year our school has been involved in the Multi-Cultural Leadership Program up at Pine River. Ten students, along with Mr. Godsoe and Miss Magiera, were involved in the one week program this year.

Before going we were briefly introduced to one another and were given a rather general idea of what to expect. I don't think any of us had any idea of what was in store for us.

We arrived along with forty other students at 200 acres of beautiful forest and rolling hills. As we gathered in the lounge, little conversation went on between the students of different schools. We were put into family groups which we were with for most of the week's activities. At night we stayed with our school groups.

We learned a great deal about the other members of our family through the many exercises we participated in. As we progressed through the activities, our new friendships grew. We met others outside our families, and friends were being made everywhere.

There seemed to be a mutual understanding between us all that something beautiful was happening. The respect and trust and friendships that lived at Pine River created an atmosphere of love that surrounded us all. Our experiences and friendships still live today.

I hope what we received can be given through us for a long time to come.

WESTON COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE

M E M O R A N D U M

TO: Yearbook Staff DATE: February 9, 1982.

FROM: F. G. Irving, Principal

SUBJECT: Conning Tower - 1982

It is again my pleasure to make a few remarks in an issue of the "Conning Tower."

It is my pleasure because it gives me the opportunity to congratulate Mrs. M. Bozzo the staff advisor and Brigette Kobialka and her editorial staff for their splendid achievement in reflecting so well the many varied activities and organizations of our school.

It gives me the opportunity to express my sincere wishes for a successful future to those students who have completed their education with us this year.

And finally it gives me the opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to staff and students for the excellent spirit of co-operation that has been evident through this year.

ACTIVITIES

Students Council

The 81-82 school year started off with the annual Blue and White Week, where all the students displayed their school spirit this year, by dressing up in many creative and unusual costumes. Among the most successful days were: Pyjama Day, Wally Cleaver Day, and Freakers Day which was followed by a very successful Freakers Ball. In late November, the Weston Hosers sprawled the school for a day with their 24's and coleman stoves. Christmas time came to us with music, featuring rock n' roll Doc, Tony Mancini and many others, short skits and of course Santa.

In Semester two, a "Boost Weston Campaign" was organized, where the homeforms were to cleanup and decorate their rooms for the preparation of the school's 125th anniversary. During the month of April, Weston held a charity drive for "Variety Village" and again homeforms were expected to participate by deciding on fund raising methods. To close the school year, the annual prom was held at Ontario Place and everybody that went celebrated the ending of another school year.

Endless hours of sorting pictures, finding corresponding names, typing and designing the pages were spent in a small, lifeless room filled with a constant reminder of the large amount of work to be done. Photographers took as many pictures as possible and spent the rest of their time in the darkroom developing them. We experienced several hours of frustration and yet shared a lot of good times. A marketing class and some members from the staff were able to obtain a good sum of advertising, which paid for an additional 8 pages in the book. We put our creative minds to work, exchanged ideas and criticized one another so that the work completed on the yearbook would not be credited to one person but a result of a group of dedicated people who worked together to give Weston another edition of the Conning Tower.

This year the Jr. Football Ironmen enjoyed quite a successful season. They finished the regular season with a 2-3-1 record and a place in the semifinals at East York. In the semifinals, they made a late comeback in the game to beat their arch rivals by a score of 8 to 6. This earned them a place in the Championship Game at York Memo, but they lost valiantly by a score of 14 to 0. Hopefully, next year, the Jr. Ironmen will be even more successful.

VOLLEYBALL/81

This year Weston made Volleyball history with both the junior and senior teams completing the season with winning records. It was also the first year that the junior and senior teams were eligible for the semifinals.

Throughout the season, the teams worked extremely hard and our winning record is evidence of this fact.

Stats and Facts

Once again, Weston resumed its place on top in both boys and girls divisions! The turnout among grade niners was especia strong this year, and augurs well for the future. Leaders on the team were Scott Snider and Paula Mugford who were chosen as t year's outstanding swimmers.

Some highlights of this year's competition, were the winning of the Don Bosco Invitational (14 schools) and a second place in t annual Cederbrae Relays (17 schools). Computers were introduced to our sport, both for speeding up swim meet results, a tabulating team rankings.

Many school records fell, but several of our swimmers went beyond that to break York League and/or TDIAA records as we Congratulations to Forbes Brown, Rob McLean, Scott Snider, Earl Eagleson, Krista Davies, Cindy Durtnall, Donna Easton, La Britton, Laura Cambil, Sue Hall, Kevin Stinson and Colin Greenaway.

Practice, Is It Worth It?

Practice is going over a sport or activity again and again in order to get better at it. It involves a lot o hard work and usually a fair amount of hassle for both the athletes and the coaches.

Whether it be swim team, basketball, football or gymnastics, everyone on the team is expected to attend
Some sports require a daily workout that runs until dark but most others are not so time consuming.

So far, most of this does not seem worth it, but, for most competitors, there is another side to it all.

Practice means actually being on a team, meeting people, lots of exercise but, best of all, it is knowin that the better you get by practising, the more you win for your school.

WRESTLING 81-82

This Season was the most productive and successful in our history. We began training back in November with over forty boys trying to fill 15 weight classes. As practices and the vigours of the season continued the team membership twindled to 29 hard working and dedicated individuals, who combined together to become the best team ever. At the York finals we had 28 athletes competing of which 23 placed in the top 5 positions.

This Years win-loss record was 19-3. Along with our excellent team showing we won the Morning Star Invitational and the York League Dual Meet Trophy.

At the YORK CHAMPIONSHIPS we were able to beat all comers with 174 pts. OUR YORK CHAMPIONS FOR THIS YEAR WERE:

GREAT SEASON GUYS

38 Kilos Gian Pemberton
41 Kilos Ken Nadin
51 Kilos Gary James
59 Kilos Vince Cosentino
61 Kilos Dave Tomlinson
87 Kilos Richard Bria

At the time of this writing we were preparing for the T.D. Finals. Fifteen of our teammates will compete as a York Championship team in hopes of gaining a berth in the O.F.S.S.A.A. CHAMPIONSHIPS to be held in early March.

RUGBY 81

The 1981 Rugby season was a troubled one for Weston. We commenced the season with the impossible task of fielding three teams. As the season ro along we finally melted down into a junior and senior team.
The first highlight of the season was the 1st annual old boys game where we had our rugby players from the past come back to play the 81 team. T
"OLDIES BUT GOLDIES" won the game, but both teams enjoyed the comradery.
Next we were successful in winning the Weston Invitational for the 4th consecutive year.
At the end of the season we had had a successful exhibition season and were on top of the York League. We were now looking forward to playing Leasid the finals. The toss of a coin gave Leaside the home field advantage and this proved disasterous for our Ironmen. Frustration and team play miscues h our efforts and the Leaside Lancers finally captured the York Championships.
We hope that with a few team policy changes the 82 Rugby Season could prove to be our best season ever.

CHRISTMAS TIME...

...AT WESTON

THE ROYAL WEDDING

THE YEAR IN REVIEW . . .

During the school year of 81-82, many significant events have happened in the world and around Toronto. Unfortunately, we were only able to spotlight a few of these events. The events shown are those which we found most important in the world around us. There are others, however, that should not go unmentioned: the return of the American Hostages from Iran, the attempted assassinations of the Pope, President Reagan and the Queen, the assassination of Anwar Sadat and lastly the Poland Crisis which is stretching well into '82.

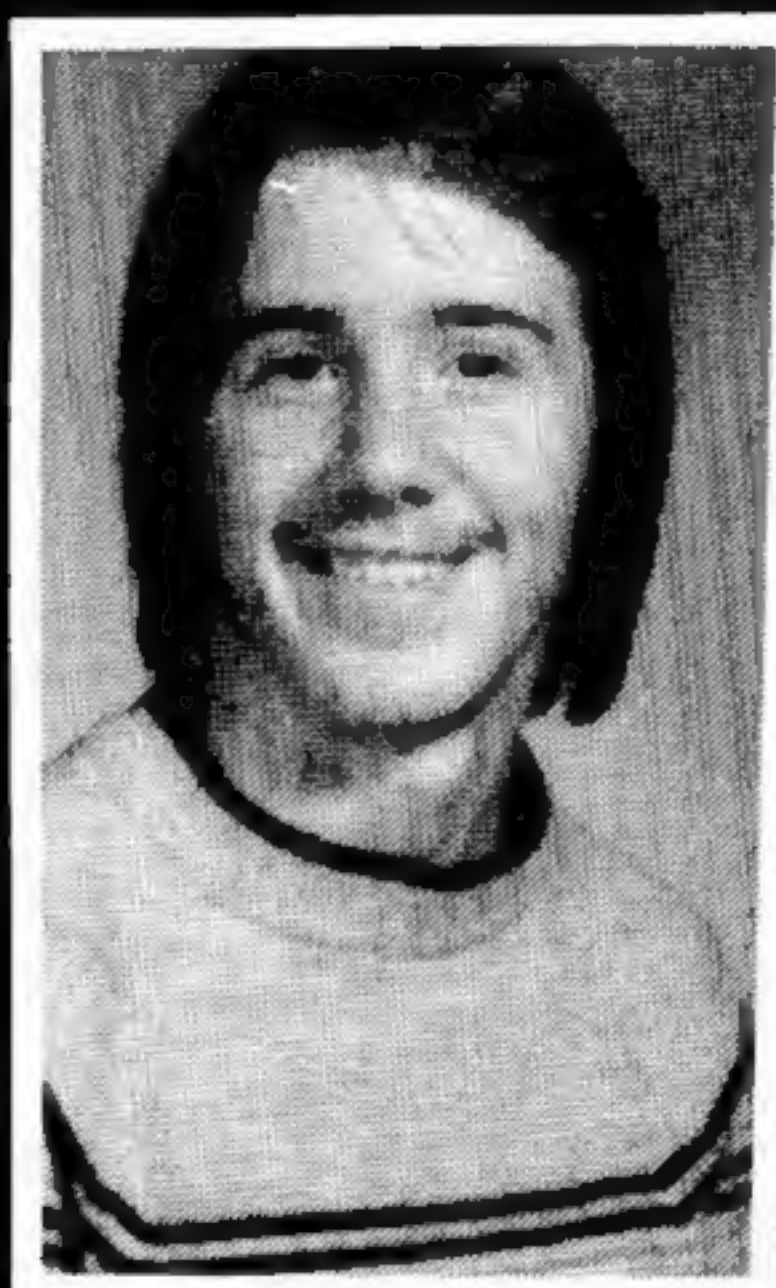
In Memorium of John Hogan


My brother was always like a father to me as well as a brother. When I had sprained my ankle he used to go back and forth with me and help me all around.

In the summer, John coached a baseball team by volunteering. He didn't get paid to do it, but did it just for the reason that he liked doing it. He also played hockey with his cousin Mike and a lot of other young men.

In the winter his favourite sports were wrestling and of course hockey. He used to take one of his young and very close friends to the Wrestling matches every 2nd Sunday. Johnny played for Warren Park's hockey team. He enjoyed playing hockey there very much.

On Tuesday, Feb. 23rd at about 7:55 p.m., John left to go to a friend's house to play his regular weekly hockey game. At 8:20 p.m., a policeman knocked at the door and said that he had just been hit by a car but didn't know how serious it was. The policeman said the incident occurred at 8:00 p.m. and he drove us up to the hospital. My Mom phoned my Dad at work and he was on his way to the Humber Hospital.

A little later, my mother heard from the doctor that they didn't know if my brother was going to live because he was suffering severe head injuries, broken bones and internal injuries. We were able to see my brother and at 1:30 a.m. we couldn't do anything so we ended up going home. We received a call at 2:45 a.m. the same morning saying that his heart rate was failing very badly. We all went over to the hospital and stayed with him. My mother and I decided to go home at 7:30 a.m. and come back in an hour. My Dad stayed with him and we took a cab home. When we got home and we started cleaning up and got a call from the hospital. John Phillip Hogan had passed away at 8:00 a.m. on Wednesday, February 24, 1982.

My brother had lived for exactly 12 hours after the accident. He got hit at 8:00 p.m. at night and died 8:00 a.m. the next morning. The last words I remember him saying to me were, "Bye Tina, I'm going to my game now."

Even though John died, we had always loved him very much and we'll always have him on our minds.
